

73, EATON TERRACE,
S.W.

June 20, '95

My dear Winnie

Yes - with the greatest pleasure - 4:30
tomorrow. Why didn't you hail me, whistle to me,
send a policeman to arrest me, yesterday? It was mean of you, ignoble girl! I never saw you - don't see any one, but I forgive you - that's the sort of man I am!

TO EATON TERRACE
1878

Wish I could go to see you to-day; but I positively can't, I have to be at the House
early.

Be to-morrow, Goodbye.

Ever truly yours,

Richard M. Carter
