

Cultivated.

In today's N.Y. Times is a letter to the editor about the rotten borough of Delaware, which may interest you.

When do you come on here again?

I have been picking up the Press at Brentano's - when I could find it - and reading your Yorktown letters. They struck me as the best I have seen. But I refer the whole affair has not been an amazing success - has it?

Dear B:

330 E. 17th St. N.Y.
Oct 21st 1887

I enclose a letter today which speaks for itself and which I thought you might casually show the Chief. I am very sorry to trouble you about it, but what am I ~~to~~ to do?

I sent the second J. J. today. It has the first notice I have yet seen of Marie Colombier's book on Bern. hardt in America. It has also the Audré matter of which I spoke to you. Next week I notice the Judge and shall make a P on comic journalism in U.S.

By the way, how came the Press of yesterday, Thursday, Oct 20th to have two personals, one on the Judge and the other on the Town, both taken from the G. G. of Sunday?

Today the judge is advertised freely, but last Sunday I think the G. G. made the absolutely first mention of it, as it did
of "Royal Youth" at Daly's.

I enclose a little personal which I have been asked to get into print. Can you put it in the Press on Sunday. It is all right, I know. I do not know Sequel, but I know he has one of the best tenor-voices of the day, and with his wife's money it has been splendidly

Now do you take the principle of always ending the G. G. with an anecdote - a most de la fin?

If the Press wants to do a very good bit of literary enterprise, it ought to buy "The Implications of the United States" from G. A. Freeman, it will be half-a-dozen successive Sundays. What think you?

Yours Truly

Frederick Parkes
