

think we do know how;
at least I am so much
at a loss myself about the way to I fancy
it must be the same as my neighbours. The fault & loss of which you have spoken to us is you seem to be Peterburgs are as useful to the sick as the others for the boy who you 67m42

Nov 23. 1870

3 St Peter, Lower Carlisle

Dear Dr Westcott

I cannot any longer refrain from expressing to you, that I have expressed to me before I knew, about my being fit to study in the thought of your being a teacher of being in the woods:

Those who see & feel as I do, the dark
head which is too
or seek teachers cannot but hail your coming amongst us with warm hope. I know that we have one of the best students to assist me that England has produced for many a day in St Lighthfoot & there is, I believe, in the young as well as the old a ~~strong~~ eagerness of his work. There are also many others who that, I am sure, spend at their strength, if they knew how, to quicken places which is most dear to them, but I do not

Nov. 23

1870

I trust the Spirit of God will enable you to stir up our desires to receive the gifts & the profits by the other -

I have hardly a right to speak to you in such words but I hope you will accept them as a token of gratitude for the benefits I have received from your kind & most offerable for the Union.

Yours

1787

J. S. Munn