

Philadelphia, Monday July 17, 1844.

My dear Sir,

I write this as early as 6 1/2 A.M., to leave early at your office, in case I should not find you in.

M'M. brought home, - he is such a state, mentally,
- the effects of a Balthazar butter, - as to be incapable of executing any instrument. He (J.) desired to put himself into the hands of Gillmore, his counsel - who, however, I fear is out of town. M'M. has, consequently no immediate hope of his doing any thing in accordance with the plan counselled; and for this reason, <sup>he</sup> (M'M.) is desirous we should not consult Binney.

M'M. will get down as soon as he can obtain some sleep - perhaps from 9 to 10.

Very truly yours,

Robt. McJird

Mr. Price. }

P.S. I do not know whether M'M. mentioned, or whether it is a circumstance of more than <sup>if I am not mistaken,</sup> indirect interest, that G.'s paper was first dishonored, on Wednesday, at New York, by his brother, W.M.H. Graham. This was the day on which we put to him to the amt. of $2081; & <sup>two</sup> days after he had seen & left his brother in New York (on Monday.)
