Summit,
July 10th 1917.

My dear Mr. Natto,
I am sorry to have
forgotten about my promise in regard to the prayers
I used at Mr. Natto's funeral. I wish you
had reminded earlier
while they were fresh
in my memory.

So far as I can recall, the additional prayers, above those
provided in the office,
for "the burial of the

Read (pp. 294-300),
"well as follows" —
in the Church —

"For Persons under affliction" p. 43 Collect for Santa Emma p. 123
Insert into "Additional Prayers" p. 301

At the Gradual
after the regular Service
(pp. 298-300)

The third "Additional Prayer" beginning
"Almighty & Everlasting" p. 301
"A Commemorative Prayer" p. 288
"A Prayer in behalf of all at the Visitation" p. 289
and the following: —
(opposite page)

"O Lord Jesus, Support us
 all the day long of this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen, and
 the evening comes, and
 this busy world is hushed,
 and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in Thy mercy, Lord, grant us a safe
 lodging, a holy rest,
 and peace at the last,
 Amen, Lord Jesus, Amen."

This is to the best of my recollection -

I have some sort
of idea that I found
the list of prayers to
Mrs. Mahie. Perhaps
if you are writing
to her you could find out.

Very Sincerely,
Walker Seymour.

P.S.

I have in my library
the English edition (Oxford, D. C. Talboys, 1838) of

"The Early Life and Professional Years
of Bishop Harebot,
By John de Vicar (sic)
D.D. Professor &c"

with a Preface containing a History of the Church in Guernsey

Walter Hargrave Wood, D.D., Vicar of Leeds &c"
(one volume)

This is really very little in the book

concerning Bp. Kobant's life here! I shall examine it again with a view,
as you suggest, for an article for our local

papers -
Mr Dix's history of Trinity Church has
possibly a little more
I find him our local tradition about having
the sexton of Trinity Signal him from the
steeple when he was
needed in the city,
but I am not sure
whether he wrote it
or not.
