My dear Mr. North:

Many thanks for your letter. I am looking forward to getting the catalog.

The best account of the wedding was carried in the New York Herald, but the Times, as I recall it, was very good also. I myself was too excited to note many of the details that day. Mrs. Roosevelt has gone to China with our youngest son, so I cannot consult her.

Incidentally, I can imagine nothing more delightful than retiring with 7,000 volumes for companions.

Sincerely yours,

Thw due Roosevelt

Have you made arrangements for the publication of your memoirs? If
