"Many thanks for the letter. I think Mr. Kinglake will be delighted to read it. It's really valuable."

 Mr. Kinglake, the historian to whom she refers, once wrote in her Album, apropos of her living in hotels, Claridges' in particular, the following nonsense verse:—

Whose favour is greater to me
Than the blisses of twenty-five marriages
Could possibly, possibly be."

Married the Grand Duke Michael.
AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED TO "DEAR ADINE."
3 pp., 8vo. Zarskoe-Selo, October, 1857.
A very fine letter on personal matters.

(Trans.):—" . . . We were very anxious here about the poor King as it seems was very dangerously ill. Thank God that he is better now. My the Empress is quite well.

"I do not like Zarskoe nearly so much as Peterhof. . . .

"Micha send you his love. He has a great deal to do now & was even for six days which made me dreadfully sad.

"The Kaiser & Kaiserin arrive here on the 15th." Etc.

- 1442 ORLEANS (GASTON, DUKE D', 1608-1660). Youngest son of
IV. and Marie de Medicis; father of the "Grande Mademoiselle."
AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED TO HIS COUSIN.
1 page, 4to. Paris, 15th September, 1650.

Interesting letter, announcing that M. Le Tellier will write time to time what is happening in Parliament, also what the Am-dor of the Archduke of Austria will have to say.
