

THE AUTHORS CLUB,
SEVENTH AVE. AND 56TH STREET,
CARNegie BUILDING,
NEW YORK.

May 1, 1903

My dear Mrs. Bailey:

Yes; Mrs.

Gardner has in upon me a few days ago
and the "afternoon idea" emerged. I have been rather waiting to hear from her as to the day. At present I have no engagements

for the week after next,
though there is a possibility of something turning up
Saturday the 16th.

One might say Monday
the 11th - tentatively -
& that brings it up to her to say no
& suggest some other time. You see or hear from her often;

will you ask her to let me
know about it?

Aschally yours

Jessie Osborne

NEW YORK
MAY 20 1890
THE COLUMBIAN CREDIT