

just could & were waiting to see me. So that was fortunate. The bill has to be drawn. I shut me & said the town, no time was to be lost. For they must have it by Monday noon. So to work I went, and continued all day, the end of the month. So that it now is in such a forward state, that I hope to let them have it this week late. But you see I can very minute expect the Turner Countable paper, then I must put the others aside & finish off them. That shocking fire in Red Lion Street. I cannot make out the cause of Mr. Harrison's the boy's conduct, but it looks very bad. It is well worth reading.
It is in the 4th column of last side. That a nuisance, set of

Wm. S. Jackson
Wm. S. Jackson

Written Dear Mrs. had yesterday. I kindly think she will have a lot - for with us it is quite a wet day. - Dear Papa will see long speed explained by the article in yesterday's Times as to the recorder's unwisdom. I do fully hope & rely on soon to be with you this & wish I know not whether it will prove a production tho' it is a what with Proud, Short causes &c. William's Auction, &c. I trust, Peter Hall, Fred Short Causes Milk. - I do so long to see you all. I had to the end of the day. I am not a bit of a I am not a bit of a

The Office as first to I am very thankful & obliged to hear how dear Mauma was, and to hear that she is a great deal better. And indeed made heart beat high with thankfulness and joy. How joy kind in her to think of sending the letter, and to dear Jacob in executing the trust. I was very glad to hear of dear Papa's safe arrival at home never did I more truly enjoy his company than the time we spent in these chambers when here and I would give hope that it is to him so agreeable, that he will try the accommodations here again when next in town. He will like to know that the W. H. Jackson
I am very thankful & obliged to hear how dear Mauma was, and to hear that she is a great deal better. And indeed made heart beat high with thankfulness and joy.
How joy kind in her
to think of sending the letter, and to dear Jacob in executing the trust.
I was very glad to hear of dear Papa's safe arrival at home never did I more truly enjoy his company than the time we spent in these chambers when here and I would give hope that it is to him so agreeable,
that he will try the
accommodations
here again when next in town. He will like to know that the

