My dear Ernest :

Thank you, my dear fellow, for your fine letter about the Pulitzer Prize. Isn't it fine to get a windfall like this just as a chap is about to pay his taxes ? Nor am I insensible of the compliment conferred. I am glad that the record of all our days is meeting with such favor.

With my best regards to Mrs.
North, in which I know Mrs. Bok would join if she were here, believe me,

Very heartily yours,

Edward W. Bok
