Gentlemen:

As I did not request you in so many words to put from the Author. I do not know that I have a right to find fault - but still I think it is the common practice of publishers to attend to this of these things though they may appear in flagrant you are not so to authors - I meant to do a civil thing to a number of persons and you have disappointed me - I have told you where I shall be for the next week, and I trust you will send my M^s accordingly - I shall be glad to you to send down with the M^s a copy of the B^k of Refud Charge - and of the MS is gone before you receive this being sent it in a parcel — don't send according to the last list — before you hear from me again I mention that I did not think either paper or just according to the specimens in the and that of Dollars Change but infer to it of this you take no notice —

I am Gentlemen your faithfully

Sydney Smith
