

Lensfield, Cambridge, 24 Jan. 1902.

Dear Mr. Moulton,

Will you kindly tell me the name of the barrister who works for you at II King's Bench Walk? Some time ago, I think a year or more, a letter or two passed between us on a subject connected with the microscope, and I called on him at King's Bench Walk, and we had a good deal of talk. But his name has gone out of my head. I looked in the London Directory over the long list of names put down for No. II, thinking I should recollect the name when I saw it in print, but I did not.

Excuse the trouble I am giving you, and believe me

Yours very faithfully,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "J. G. Stokes". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned to the right of the typed name.
