

OLD TOKEFIELD,
CRANLEIGH,
SURREY.

May 26/1923

My dear Purina

The title of my book is 'Young Felix'.
I enclose a descriptive paragraph for Hutchinsons, and expect to deliver the complete typescript to you by June 12. The book is no good at all for serialisation. But I think the next one, which will be a short emotional study, might be sold serially in America. Not here, I'm afraid, unless it is astoundingly good. We'll speak of this when we meet. I propose to write it this year.

Yours ever,

P.B.