My dear Pinkie

I have asked Miss Head (see enclosed) to refer the inquirers to you. Will you kindly deal with the matter when it arises?

NB. We leave for home on Friday, arriving on Saturday (old Tolpfield, Cranleigh, Surrey, to which address in future all communications for me should be addressed), and I don't expect any communication from you would now reach me here. So, if you want to write, send to Cranleigh.

Hope the American trip was a great success. Our stay here has been glorious, and the weather on the whole superb. Certainly the last 10 days have been continuous of gorgeous.

Yours,
J.S.

Dear Mr Swinnerton,

Somebody has made a modest offer for the 2nd Serial Rights of your story "A Marriage Arranged" which appeared in Nash's last August. The price they propose is 15 guineas. What shall I do about it?

Yours sincerely,

John Head
