

Private & Confidential

3 Sycamore Inn, 28 May, 1840

My dear Sir,

I hoped to have been able to send you the same edition of Gloucester, but as it is not ready I think it is not expedient that I should leave you under the misapprehension which your last note implies that I am ready to enter into any negotiation with Mr. Peacock, beyond the adoption of an opinion on the merit of your plan with which he is already acquainted.
There are many reasons - which I am

For your candor & position would approve - why I could not do so with propriety & good effect; - any other I may mention that I have more the one old friend with unacted regards who of considerable rank whom I have declared thus to assist - which I am now will close the subject with you. Respectfully But I am unable to realize the wish you be satisfied in a manner satisfactory so feeling a confidence in me,

Yours;

My dear Sir

Faithfully

J. M. Talbot
