

Groton, Conn. 21, 1874.

My dear Sir:
 Several days since I wrote you inviting you to visit me at Groton, but unluckily, as I now remember, I directed to Newbury. Will you favor me with a visit at yr.
 earliest convenience?

I have counted upon it for a long time.

Truly yours,

Geo. S. Bonwell

Maj. Ben: Roday Poore, Newburyport.
