

Florence, especially Florence.
If you could send her just two or three to 1 West Main Street,
Richmond, Virginia.

She would be so grateful, & I too! - I hope it isn't too much to ask.

With much love for you both, I am as ever Yours affectionately,

Dear Miss Lyon,

I hope you got the copy of Selene that I sent you some time ago.

I have had a winter
full of work but of terrible anxiety also,
or you and your dear
sister would have heard of me often.

My dear Mother

has been desperately ill all winter, and three weeks ago, went to a Hospital from which she has just returned almost entirely well again.

You can imagine my delight, especially as I have to sail for Italy on the 10th of this month.

We shall be at the Villa Ada, as usual & our address will be the same as last

Summer. What are your plans and how are you both? - How delightful if you were sailing also on the Fardagna. We are going to try the Italian Line this time.

Dear Miss Lyon, will you do me a real favour?
My friend Ellen Glasgow
the writer and the dearest being, is going to Italy also, in July, & she is most anxious to have some good addresses for Silversmiths, lace, gloves etc. in Naples &
