

I found upon my arrival here a very pleasant circumstance
awaiting me, that
of my regiment and
the Dist of Memphis.
Accordingly I went to work and fitted up
my quarters nicely,
which was scarcely
accomplished when
Gen. Taylor announced his arrival at Memphis, and relieved
me of my command
I would have cared

but little for it had it not interrupted all
my plans in regard to Israel, which I was studying very hard
and successfully, having nearly all my time to myself, and could have called Mr. Deane for teacher - All these advantages are to be sacrificed as I expect to have to go to Memphis to take command of that Post - Judge Campbell called upon me during my absence last week - upon returning his call I found his family very
