

189

Amor. June 14th 1881.

My dear Dr Westcott,

Your kind gift is,
I assure you, much

prized. Hasty judgments were no doubt clearly foreseen, but time will bring wisdom on this grave matter.

It is pleasant to be able to acknowledge to yourself

how much I owe to your Commentary on St. John.
At Paris during the winter and again at Malvern during the Easter holidays it was my chief study every day,
and I may say I have read every word. Also I am making use yet
weekly with the Latin Form, besides your new Text.

Again & again I am
made to feel gratefully
the exceeding value of your life's work.

Believe me always
most truly yours

A. Montagu Butler

Shall I do wrong in sending you the enclosed?
I did not voluntarily either write or print.