Dear Mr. Bayard, I have to acknowledge the receipt of your account of sales of my books to you, with check for balance of copyright, which I found here upon my arrival last evening.

I shall hope to see you early next week; and if you can mention a day when I shall be sure to find you, I will arrange my call accordingly, as my stay will be short, and I should be sorry to come to Franklin St. and visit you.

Will you kindly enclose to me one of your catalogues, - also one or two of other publishing houses if you happen to have them? I must select a few books to carry back into the wilds.

I am, with thanks

Yours truly

Adeline S. Whitney
