

Sir,

Lockermouth 6th Feb.
1777.

Your's dated the 5th Instant I have this day received with a parcel which contains, I doubt not, £300 for the Callico Printers Company at Carlisle; nor do I doubt the Cash being all good and the proper weight. There is no expectation of any Charge upon You for conveying the Money to Lock-Bridge, it is to accommodate the Borrowers who live at so great a distance and must therefore be at their Expence. I could not suggest any method more convenient for transacting the Business, apprehending you would (having sent the Business to W. Ellwood who is so near you) readily depend upon his signing the Note when it came to your hands. I will send you the Note by the post as you desire, - and will request if the Bond be sent to W. Ellwood to exchange for the Note. You may depend on it I will take as much care

The Titles and Securities, Mr Brockbank's offer, with every particular and Value as much as if they were my own private Concerns. I will do what I can, (and do not much fear it) to have Mr Christian at Liberty at the Year end. I am fir Your very humble serv^t. Jⁿ Wordsworth
