

Mr Bowman of New-Castle and his Father of Cockley-Gile being now quit by the death of the said people from the difficulties wch arose from the former Treaty wth them on Mr Christian's Behalf, save as to some Legation, and those Legations being ready to release, they have desired y<sup>t</sup> their Application for 700 may be concurred, wch in compliance wth their Request I now do, and hope Mr Christian would, on inquiry, find the said Legation eligible to him. — If I had known of it's so turning out should I have offered it. — I am y<sup>r</sup> most ob. servant

11 June 1729. —

15. 1779 Wrote Mr Woodworth that I had to prepare from Instructions that would be from Mr Kinsland to purchase late Hig. etc. And desired him to write Mr Fox that Woodford that money in his hands will be wanted to make that payment at Caudron's 1780
