

1835
MR 19
MORNING

Wm Birmingham Esq.
Lionel Belgrave Place

27.

My dear son

Extreme happy I set down to thank you for your copy of edition of Baran, received
last night & for your obliging letter

It would give me
much pleasure to be of any use to you in your meditated edition of the Poets; but I am not aware how far,

of apt by my opinion
as to the Auctions that it might be expedient
to add to your selection or to exclude. This after conference with Mr Southey I should do with great pleasure in the near while I do nearly regret that the multiplicity of my engagements prevents me from calling upon you at this; ~~with a view~~ to ~~be~~ by conversation with you might have

freedom between us
I remain here till
after Tuesday next
and if you could try your share of
finding me at home,
which I can scarcely
cost you should do however,
and we should meet
it would give me
great pleasure
to discuss the matter.
By half past one tomorrow
I should be at home.
Yours truly
Wm. Wordsworth
Rochdale 1800