

Elderfield,
Otterbourne, Nov 11th
Winchester. 1873

My dear Joan,

I have not yet sent you paper of directions, but I will do so today - Now have I sent the list of those allowed to purchase at trade price, because I thought you were not sure of them - i.e
who would wish to do so - Will you now
add yours to the list
I have sent, and

Send it up to Macmillan I am telling him it is coming - You see I have put in nobody among your relations Coleridge or Patterson for I thought it would be cleaner if you did it all - I have addressed two or three new ones, who seemed to me desirable from their close interest - I have heard nothing

at all of Lady Martin's MS I hope it is not lost as I think Mrs Selwyn would have sent it directly -

Yours affectionate cousin
C M Yonge
