Three things to me
God sends
Old Peace and books - all pinede

Dear Mr. G.

Having observed with some concern that Mr. Godwin is a little fastidious in what he eats for supper,
I herewith beg to present his palate with a piece of dried Salmon. I am assured it is the best that swims in Trent.
If you do not know how to dress it, allow me to add, that it should be cut in thin Slices & broild in Paper previously prepared in Butter. Wishing it exquisite, I remain, much as before,

Do not add
Mashed Potatoes.

Yours Sinc^r

Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, with a signature in the center. The text is mirrored and appears to be bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper. The signature is written in cursive and reads "Mrs. Godwin".
