

GIBSON, Walter Matthew, M.V.O. (4th class), 1900; Secretary of His Majesty's Privy Purse, 1901; b. 1856; e. s. of late Rev. Edward Gibson of Ashby Magna, near Lutterworth; m. 1891, Katharine Maud, d. of Charles Manley Smith, late Master in the Supreme Court of Judicature. Entered the Privy Purse Office of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, 1880; appointed Secretary, 1888. Address: The Croft, Oxted, Surrey; Privy Purse Office, Buckingham Palace, S.W. Club: Constitutional.

Privy Purse Office.
Buckingham Palace, S.W.

8. Feb: 1889.

Dear Sir.

I am much obliged to you for your letter with respect to the supply of Magazines &c for the Queen's use: and I have sent your letter on to Sir A. Dunscombe who wrote to me upon the subject - would you please let me know by the Messenger, whether you have sent me the copy of "Sunday Talk" for this month: I do not recollect seeing it, nor have I crossed it off on my List as having come in. This is a periodical which is solely for Her Majesty's own use, and about which it is necessary to be very particular, that we have it in good time.

Yours faithfully
Collyer

W. John Dunsford.