June 20. 77.

Dear Miss Atwood,

I should indeed - more than "care"
- greatly delight to see you again: and I have wanted to say this, in the hope I might be able to appoint a time for calling as you so kindly allow me. But the busy idleness of the season is waxing fast & furious: (I have to-day eleven engagements big & little). I will take my chance of finding you when I am able to call: and, fortunate or no, you with believe in the earnest desire of doing so which I really feel.

Ever truly yours

Robert Browning
