My dear Sir

I am still unable to answer your letter - there is no reason however why I should longer delay acknowledging it and thanking you for the sketches so kindly forwarded me.

I will make further enquiry and write you again, although I fear it may not be my good fortune to write as I should wish -

Lancashire has not done much with the collection - they are back in our gallery - and I am anxiously waiting some returns - for I am weary of the thing, it has done something in the way

LANCASHIRE RELIEF FUND.

GALLERY, 53, PALL MALL.

23rd May, 1863.

SIR,

THE COMMITTEE request me to inform you that they are desirous of closing the Accounts of this Fund, preparatory to the distribution of the Collection among the Shareholders.

They thank you for the assistance you have given to the cause, and will be obliged by your paying any balance you may have in hand into the Bankers of the Fund, Messrs. Ransom & Co., 1, Pall Mall East, S.W., on or before the 30th instant, and forwarding to me a list of the names and addresses of the holders of any shares you may have sold, together with a correct list of the numbers of their Tickets, upon the form enclosed.

As it is impossible that the Arrangements for the distribution can be proceeded with until these particulars are furnished by every Gentleman to whom Books have been supplied, your early attention will greatly oblige,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

JAMES FAHEY,

HON. SEC.

NB
The distribution will take place in this Gallery as soon as the arrangements are completed, which will be advertised in the daily papers. Subscribers will be admitted on showing their Receipt at the door.
