

Henry Morley.

66

 Lt. Upper Park Road
 Havantock Hill.
 May 15 - 63.

My dear Sir

I have read with perfect attent your article in Pempta Bar on the social position of actors. & will take an

Henry Morley.

Opportunity of referring to it in the course of some articles in Ex. in the present condition of the London Stage

~~Yours truly~~
Henry Morley.

Edmund Yates Esq.

No. 63

G. Lawrence, (Author of "Guy Rivingstone &c").

Gipsenhall Hall
E. Dereham.

Thursday

My dear Sir,

I should have had great pleasure in calling on you, as you were kind enough to propose, and I shall be very glad to make your acquaintance

G. Lawrence. (Author of "Guy Rivingstone &c").

at any future time: but I fear I cannot be at present, the of any use to "Temple Bar". There is a new novel, of mine coming out, in "Fasci" on the 1st of next month I believe, and this will take up all my time whilst it is printed. I am so fearfully idle, that I am always afraid to enter into any future engagements. Your note was forwarded to me from Lyon, which I left a Monday: I shall hardly be back till far on in the Autumn, but whenever I am in London, I do do myself the pleasure of calling on you Believe me very truly yrs

George Lawrence