

See A. C. C. (3rd page)

London

Jan. 2. 1869

The Lord Chief Justice
presents his compliments to Mr. Lewis, and in reply to his letter of the 28th ult. begs to assure him that it is wholly out

of his power to procure him any autograph he sees
of the late Mr. Justice Talfourd. The Chief Justice keeps
no such letters,
nor is he acquainted

with any one who does, and he is not acquainted with any members of the Talfourd family.

He cannot therefore furnish Mr. Lewis
with.

James E. Lewis
Esq.