

Monday morning

My dear Greenough

I found last night letter (the first, I have received from Germany from <sup>the</sup> Pastor, with whom I lodged & boarded at Ratzeburg. It interested me, & I think will amuse you - "For we have all of us one human heart." I send you likewise Godwin's letter, of which you, of course, take care - & when you have read it, put it safely away till I see you. - - Do be so kind (you are human me so, that I get impudent) as to send for me the Pens, that are inclosed - I will mend my own head & heart as much as possible, that I may with better confidence ~~write~~ subscribe myself, my dear Greenough,

Your affectionate
Friend,

J. F. Clarke
