BRITISH MUSEUM.

Dear Prof. Biagi,

We have in my dept. here only fragments of the B. Wright engraving of "the names of all the chief corporations".

It is almost impossible to put a price upon the complete copy you mention without seeing it, but it should be worth from £5 to £10 certainly - say 200fr.. or thereabouts :- But much the most satisfac: tory way would be that the owner should send it us for examination: if we would do this we would tell him at once how much we should be prepared to pay for it

With kind remembrances

I am

Yours very truly

Sidney Colvin
