My dear Sir,

I returned the Article for the Archaeologia the day following that on which I received it, with one or two slight corrections, and cannot account for your not having received it. — On enquiry I have no doubt it will turn up.
Tomorrow I intend starting for a weeks tour in the Isle of Wight — Is there any thing I can do for you in this part of the world? — if so a line to the Admiralty will be forwarded to me. —
most truly yours
J. Crofton Croker.
