ANNOUNCEMENTS

It is with pleasure that the Lexington Colored Fair issues its Souvenir Catalog and it hopes that its friends and patrons will find a pleasant guide to the 1935 program.

We have spared neither pains nor money to make this the banner year of fairs. You will find many new and novel rings. The prizes are better and the rings more varied. Progress is our motto.

The Lexington Colored Fair is the Premier Negro Fair. Wherever our people are in appreciable number the Lexington Colored Fair is known and talked about. Our people are coming from every section and we are trying to give something worthy of their coming.

Anything that our group has done is sought, that the fair might be a clearing house for the worthwhile things, an inspiration and encouragement to do more and better things. If you know of anything worth while in your city or neighborhood let us hear about it. We want it.

The best music, the greatest men and women, the best stock and the finest exhibition will be here.

The merchants will have their best wares and finest and latest labor saving devices on the grounds for your inspection. Come, bring your families and friends, there will be entertainment and amusement for all. A few day's pleasure will prolong your life and save drug bills. Every good thinking person takes a vacation. Arrange to take yours with us—it will be reasonable and profitable. No where can you get as much for your money as you can at the Fair. Lexington, the home of hospitality, throws wide its doors to you. Come once and we are sure you will come again. See what Lexington is doing. There are many places of interest and instruction.

When you have read this catalog pass it along to your friends. Get the best you have ready and you will find rings for whatever you may have.

Don't miss the great Sunday afternoon Band Concert and Folk Song Festival, Sunday afternoon, August 11, 1935—from 4:30 P. M. until ?

GENERAL RULES ON JUDGING

For information and guidance of exhibitors and judges, the following general rules are announced.

1. To aid in avoiding discourtesy to judges on the part of exhibitors who assume that only their own judgments as to merits of their exhibits can be correct, it is made a request of this Association that judges of the horse classes shall not discuss their award nor in any way give reason for their judgment. Judges are further requested not to express opinion as to the merits of the exhibit which one may be justified in construing as pre-judgment.

2. Judges are requested to adhere to one type, as far as possible, in making awards, and thus avoid confusion. All horses, whether ridden or driven, must be judged from the ground.

3. No exhibitor shall himself ride or drive more than one horse or one team of horses in any one class.

4. Any exhibitor who shall interfere with a judge in any way, or who shall show a judge any disrespect, or who shall publicly take exception to or criticize the ruling or decisions of any judge, shall forfeit all awards not then paid to him, and be debarred from further entry and competition, until he shall have made such apology and reparation as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors, and shall have been reinstated by the vote of a majority of the whole board. In addition, it shall be in the discretion of the board to levy such fine against the offender as it may see fit.

5. No director of this Association shall be permitted to serve as a judge in any ring.

FLORAL HALL

Floral Hall is the art department of the Association and in it you will find the work of our women, children and the agricultural products of the men. We are proud of all of it and have gone out of our way to put attractive premiums for this work and we hope that our patrons will study this program and make their exhibits.

We will have some splendid lectures given by the best men of our race.

We have studied the line of work for the schools and children and feel sure that the parents will encourage the little folks to make exhibits.

The Association has put all the money in premiums that conditions will allow. And we are sure that you will be pleasantly surprised.

All exhibitors are expected and must conform strictly to the rules as no favoritism will be shown.

The hall will be open for the reception of exhibits Monday morning, August 12, at eight o'clock and persons interested are urged to get their articles in early so that they will be properly classified and entered.

The hall will be thrown open for inspection Tuesday afternoon, August 13th, the second day of the Fair.

Every article for exhibit must be entered in its proper class and the name of the rightful owner.

The management is not responsible for articles left in the hall after six o'clock Saturday, August 17, 1935.
