FOREWORD

This bulletin has been prepared by the staff of the Division of Instructional Services, Bureau of Instruction, for the purpose of presenting significant information relating to the program of secondary education in Kentucky and the listing of classified and approved high schools for the 1962-63 school year. A companion bulletin is being issued later giving similar information for the elementary schools.

It is a matter of general concern that some of our high schools, as indicated by emergency ratings, do not meet the minimum standards for accreditation. This concern is justifiable in light of the modern demands on American Education. Not only should minimum standards be met, but an even greater effort should be made at all levels to provide the kind of educational opportunities which will enable our youth to meet the challenges of this age. Additional financial support for education makes it mandatory that each school make every effort to improve the educational opportunities available for students. Many improvements in quality of instruction are already apparent in our secondary education program.

I acknowledge with much appreciation the efforts that have been put forth in the compilation of the material and data contained in this bulletin both on the part of my staff and local school personnel. It is hoped that the material will be useful to the members of the profession as they strive to improve educational opportunities for the youth of our state.

WENDELL P. BUTLER
SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

The last hope of human liberty in this world rests on us. The boys of the rising generation are to be the men of the next, and the sole guardians of the principles we deliver over to them.

The bulk of mankind are schoolboys through life. Education is the true corrective of abuses of constitutional power. Whenever the people are well informed, they can be trusted with their own government.

KENTUCKY HIGH SCHOOLS — 1962-63

Kentucky public and private high schools are classified and accredited by the State Board of Education. This requirement is set forth in the law which requires that each school district in the state provide an approved twelve-grade school service and that rules and regulations be adopted governing the quality of this service. The law also provides that the "Superintendent of Public Instruction shall annually prepare or cause to be prepared and submit for approval and publication by the State Board of Education a list of all public and private high schools or other secondary schools in the state, showing their classifications." The classifications are given on recommendations of the Bureau of Instruction after consultation with the Commission on Secondary Schools of the Kentucky Association of Colleges, Secondary, and Elementary Schools.

The number of high schools classified and accredited annually by the State Board of Education continues to decline. This year, we have 506 high schools of all types of organizations or one fewer school than existed in 1961-62. Table I which follows shows the number of schools classified according to the type of organization and the controlling authority under which they operate:

Of the 506 schools operating, 452 are high schools offering a Program of Studies through the twelfth grade, and are considered complete high schools. The complete high schools also show a decline from year to year which means that the high schools are becoming larger making it practicable to offer a broader Program of Studies for the youth of the State.

Table II shows the number of complete high schools and the change in number for a twelve-year period from 1950-51 to 1962-63. In this period of time, there has been a reduction in the number of complete high schools of more than 100.

It is the purpose of Table III to show the breakdown according to the size of the complete high schools and the control under which they are operated. In the county school district it will be seen that only 9 schools with an enrollment of 99 pupils or below remain and only 4 such schools remain in the independent districts. This year, there is a total number of 133 high schools with an enrollment of 500 and above. Last year this number was 117 which represents that within the school year, 16 high schools had grown in size to an enrollment of more than 500 pupils.

Of the 452 complete high schools, it will be noticed that 269 are operated by the county school districts, 100 are under control of independent districts, 9 are state, federal or regional schools and 74 are private schools.

OUGH

The common type of high school organization conforms to either a six-year high school, grades 7-12; or a four-year high school, grades 9-12. For a number of years, the trend has been moving away from the six-year high school organization to the four-year high school organization. It will be observed, that this year there are 145 six-year organizations compared to 281 four-year organizations.

The remaining high schools offer programs ranging from the seventh through the eleventh grade. By far the greater number of these schools are organized as separate junior high schools, grades seven, eight and nine.

In Table IV, there is an accumulation of information concerning the number of high schools representing approximately a half-century of growth. It will be noticed that for twenty years there was a gradual growth from 316 schools in 1915-16 to 848 in 1934-35. Since then, there has been a gradual and continuous decrease from 848 to 506 which represents 333 fewer schools operating now than 48 years ago. It is interesting to notice the number of discontinued high schools during the 48 year period is more than those existing at the beginning of the period by 26 schools.

The number of pupils enrolled in the high school continues to increase. This year there has been an increase of nearly 18,000 pupils enrolled in grades 7-12 from 215,962 in 1961-62 to 233,462 for 1962-63. The breakdown between the enrollment of the high schools operated by the county school districts and the independent school districts is represented by about two-thirds of them being enrolled in the county school districts against one-third in the independent school districts approximately.

Table VI which follows gives the enrollment in all types of high schools in the state, grades 7-12, classified according to the type of control under which the school operates.

The greatest increase in the number of pupils enrolled in the high schools this year occurred in the county school districts. This increase in the county school districts numbered 9,671 pupils from 129,325 in 1961-62 to 138,996 in 1962-63. In the independent district there was a smaller increase from 65,650 pupils in 1961-62 to 71,845 or an increase of 6,195.

Table VII is presented to show the growth and enrollment in the high schools of the State for 49 years, from 1914-15 to 1962-63, classified according to the white enrollment, the Negro enrollment and the enrollment in the private schools. Since integration of white and Negro pupils has occurred rather rapidly since 1954-55, the State Department of Education has discontinued in keeping separate statistics. Today almost all of the high schools are integrated schools and therefore nearly all of the enrollment for the public schools is represented in the column headed Public White High Schools.
