Juanita Vivian Breckenridge

Lester Donald Snow

The image shows the front cover of a book. The cover is a light beige or cream color. It features a large, centrally placed diamond shape, which is a recessed area. The background of the cover is decorated with a complex, embossed pattern of wavy, concentric lines that resemble wood grain or a topographical map. The diamond shape is also embossed, creating a subtle border around the central text. The text is printed in a black, gothic-style font.
