In April 1862
your Mr. Sanford Lyne was in our City, he needed a little money and we lent him Forty Dollars, he gave us a note signed "J. W. Lyne", We learn Mr. Sanford Lyne is now dead, he told us should anything happen to him to advise his brother of our holding the note and he would immediately pay it, We would be pleased to hear from you on the subject, the most of us in this section (ourselves included) are pretty well broken up; dimes are now worth us more than dollars used to be, We don't know the Condition of Mr.
Lyne's estate - but sincerely hope it will not be differsive for it to pay it.

Respectfully Y^{rs}
