

P.S. Be pleased to remember me, with my compliments, to your cousin, the Doctor, for whom I have a very high regard though my acquaintance with him is but limited.

Don't forget your promise to attend the Association

Miss Emma

In compliance with my promise, I have ordered, Waller, Sherrill & Co. to send to your address A. P. Williams' "Exposition".
I hope it may be received, and carefully and profitably read. I hope, also, that you may be able to see me Lard's work, which the above is <sup>in</sup> answer to. By having the latter to refer to, you will be able to perceive and appreciate the fairness and
