KENTUCKY LADY KATS (11-13, 2-5) vs. ALABAMA (13-11, 1-5)

Friday, February 17, 1989

Memorial Coliseum, Lexington, Ky., 7:30p.m.

The Kentucky Lady Kats play host to Alabama tonight with a possible first-round bye in the Southeastern Conference tournament at stake. The Lady Kats are 11-13 overall and 2-5 in conference action after an 86-72 loss at LSU Tuesday night, but could still finish as high as a tie for sixth in league play. The tournament is scheduled for March 3-6 in Albany, Ga., with the bottom four seeds playing on the first night.

The Lady Tide is 13-11 overall, but 1-5 in the SEC, and Coach Lois Myers' squad still has games left with No. 1 Auburn and No. 3 Tennessee. Kentucky will have to face Auburn on Feb. 25 in its final SEC game.

Jodie Whitaker

Alabama has won two of the last three meetings with Kentucky, including last season's 74-54 drubbing in Tuscaloosa. Alabama leads the series 5-4.

Kentucky has lost seven of its last eight games, and five straight on the road. But the Lady Kats have played well in their last two games, including last Saturday's 97-90 upset over Florida in the Coliseum. Against LSU, which is ranked 20th in the country, Kentucky led much of the first half, and stayed within striking distance of the powerful Tigers until the final two minutes of the game. Ruth Mountain led the Lady Kats with 19 points, one shy of her career high 20, including nine-straight points in a late run that cut the margin to eight points with 3:24 left.

Senior Lady Kat guard Jodie Whitaker continues to lead the team in scoring with an average of 12.7 points per game. The Austin, Ind. native was recently named SEC Player of the Week after her offensive attack against Tennessee Tech and conference rival Florida. In addition to being recognized as player of the week, Whitaker also moved into fifth place on UK's all-time scoring leader list in the game against Florida.

Whitaker scored 16 points and pulled in four rebounds against Tech, then continued her scoring drive by contributing 28 points and six rebounds in UK's win over the Lady Gators. Against LSU, Whitaker chipped in 17 points during 34 minutes of play.

Whitaker and the Lady Kats hope to pull a win against the Lady Tide team. Alabama has alternated wins and losses in 13 straight contests and is coming off a 56-55 loss to Georgia. The Tide is led in scoring and rebounding by forward Laura Heart (12.5, 10.1).
