Dear Victor:

Yesterday I wrote you a note and then by mistake put it in the wrong box. It may have got lost, so I am writing another. Yes: by all means use the quote for your card. And would it be possible for me to have a few of the cards for my own use? Say a dozen? That would mean running off a dozen without your names on: no name at all. Would that be too much trouble? Then about coming: probably Dec. 10th would be the best. But any other Saturday is all right though the 3rd and 26th are less good. I hope you can make it the 10th. Will wait for a word from you. Best wishes always to both of you. in Christ

Tom
