HEAD COACH—Joe B. Hall

Dr. Otis A. Singletary
University of Kentucky President

Now in his eighth year as president of the University of Kentucky, DR. OTIS A. SINGLETARY is a Mississippian whose route to the Bluegrass State curled through Louisiana, Texas, North Carolina and Washington, D. C.

He came to Lexington from a position as University of Texas vice-chancellor for academic affairs. Previously, in Washington, he had been director of the U. S. Job Corps in the early stages of its development before moving to the American Council on Education as vice-president. He had gone to the capital in 1964 after three years as chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The UNC appointment terminated Dr. Singletary's first association with the University of Texas, this a seven-year stay that saw him, as a young historian, rise rapidly in rank from instructor to full professor and begin the shift to administrative work, first as associate dean and later as assistant to the president.

The Kentucky president, and his wife—the former Gloria Walton, met when both were students at Millsaps College. He later earned master's and doctoral degrees at Louisiana State. The Singletarys have two daughters, Bonnie and Kendall, and a son, Scott.

Cliff Hagan
Director of Athletics

"I've been preparing for this all my life," CLIFF HAGAN said before taking over as athletics director at the University of Kentucky in 1975. Hagan succeeded Harry Lancaster as director after serving as assistant director for three years.

Hagan's path to the athletics directorship began in Owensboro, Kentucky, where he established a then state high school tournament record of 41 points in leading Owensboro to victory over Lafayette in the championship game of the 1949 state high school tournament.

At UK, he played on teams that won 86 of 91 games and an NCAA championship (1951). The 1954 team, undefeated in 25 games, elected not to participate in the national tournament.

Joe B. Hall

University of Kentucky Wildcats Head Basketball Coach

JOE B. HALL'S record as Wildcat head coach for the past four years stands at 79-36. During the 1976 season his team won the National Invitational Tournament and ended the year with a 20-10 record.

Hall became No. 1 varsity assistant and head freshman Coach to Rupp after Harry C. Lancaster was named permanent athletic director Feb. 1, 1969. His record with the freshmen was 60-15, including an undefeated (22-0) season (1971-72) which resulted in the Kittens being crowned National Freshman Champions by the Basketball News.

During his first season as head coach, the Wildcats won their last nine conference games to sew up the SEC title.

His ten-year coaching record is 155-92. Broken down, it shows a 57-50 five-year mark at Regis, a 19-6 record at Central Missouri, and a 79-36 four-year record at Kentucky.

A popular personality on the clinic and convention circuits, Hall also has had much international exposure. In addition to the Globetrotters tour in 1951, and the "Down Under" tour in 1974, he has helped conduct basketball clinics for the U.S. Army in Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska (1968) and at Ramstein Air Base in Frankfurt, Germany and the RAF Base at Mildenhall, England in 1975. He also was Olympic Trials coach under Hank Iba at the Air Force Academy in July 1972 and is a member of the 1976 Olympic Basketball Committee.

Coaching Assistants

DICK PARSONS

DICK PARSONS, in his fifth year as Joe B. Hall's No. 1 assistant, returned to the University as baseball coach in 1969. Before giving up his position to join basketball on a full time basis, he molded a team (1971) which established or tied 15 school records.

LEONARD HAMILTON

Much of Kentucky's defensive prowess on the court can be credited to the talent of LEONARD HAMILTON, a third year assistant, who came to UK after three years as an assistant at Austin Peay State University.

JIM LONG

A native of Detroit, Michigan JIM LONG joined the UK staff last year as junior varsity coach and scout. In addition to his coaching duties, Long lends his talents to recruiting, scouting and directing UK's summer basketball camp.

ROY DON WILSON

Trainer

Entering his seventh year at UK is ROY DON WILSON, who came to the University after serving two years as trainer at The Citadel. A native of Texas, he is a graduate of Amon Carter Riverside High in Fort Worth. He received his B.S. degree from Texas A & M with a major in physical education and a minor in business. He is married to the former Patricia Jane Cotter of Houston. They have a son and a daughter.

WALT McCOMBS

Trainer

Returning to UK after a three-year absence during which he served in a similar capacity at Clemson University is WALT McCOMBS. Assigned primarily to basketball, McCombs also works with Wilson on the football field. A native of Belton, S. C., McCombs is a graduate of Parker High School and a 1971 graduate of The Citadel, where he was student trainer for four years. He was assistant trainer at UK in 1972 and '73. He is married to the former Shelby Burris of Belton.

There's nothing wrong with a little materialism.

We'll admit it. One of the selling features of Army ROTC is just plain cold cash . . . nearly $2000 during your junior and senior years of college. There's also the opportunity for full-tuition scholarships. And a $10,000 a year salary as an Army officer when you graduate.

But we've got other good things to offer you, too. College courses which challenge you both mentally and physically. Management training and experience you'll find valuable in civilian as well as military jobs. And instant leadership responsibility in your first job after college.

If any of this interests you, check out Army ROTC. And even if you enroll just for the money, you'll graduate with something worth a lot more . . . gold bars of an Army officer.

LOUIE DAMPIER

Louie Dampier lettered in basketball at the University of Kentucky in 1965, '66, and '67. He was named Most Valuable Player of the 1965 UKIT, was a member of the All-NCAA Tournament team, a unanimous All-SEC player, was an Academic All-Conference choice and was third in voting for national Player of the Year in 1966.

Louie was president of the senior class at South Point High School in Indianapolis, Indiana and on the court paced the high school team in rebounds and ended up ranked fourth in the city in rebounding. By the end of his senior year he had netted a total of 1,057 points from the floor.

Neil Reed, then chief recruiter for Rupp, recalls in Russell Rice's "Big Blue Machine": "I had gone to look at a player named Rich Jones of Muncie, Indiana, and I was with a bunch of Indianapolis coaches. They told me that without a doubt the boy to get was at South Point. His name was Louie Dampier. I went out to watch him practice, and no one would even tell me which one he was. They thought I was a scout from another high school. Finally I got down to a little guy wearing knee guards, looping the ball in on free throws. After the practice the coach, Blackie Braden, introduced him to me, and I told Louie he had a scholarship at UK."

As a freshman, the 6'0" Dampier proved that Neil Reed had made a smart move. Dampier never failed to score in double figures that season and paced all the Kitten scorers with a 26.7 average through 16 games. He logged 427 points to stand second in first year point production only to "Cotton" Nash who had 49 more points in two more games.

Louie was the most accurate freshman shooter—52% from the field and his field goal record was 168.

Other Kittens who moved with Dampier to the varsity as sophomores were: Brad Bounds, Pat Riley and Gene Stewart. He was one of five Hoosiers on the 1964-65 Wildcat varsity.

During the '64-'65 season, Pat Riley, Tommy Kron, John Adams, Larry Conley and Dampier won 15, lost 10 and were ranked 5th in the SEC (10-6). In the '65-'66 season, Riley, Conley, Kron, Thad Jaracz, and Dampier, known as "Rupp's Runtts", won 27 and lost 2, were SEC champions (15-1), UKIT champs, ranked first nationally in polls and were national Runner-up in the NCAA Tournament.

Dampier's best game that season was against Vanderbilt at Nashville where he put in 42 points. He had scored 24 points in an earlier victory over the Commodores.

The 1966-77 UK Fact Book says of Louie: he is "unselfish to the extent that he passes off to teammates in the interest of team play. Blessed with good speed, he is a fine ball handler."

During that season, Louie's senior year, Riley, Jaracz, Cliff Berger, Phil Argento and Dampier posted a 13-13 record—the worst ever under Rupp. Louie was the bright spot on that team with a 20.6 scoring average, followed by Riley with 17.4.

After graduation Louie played professional basketball with the Kentucky Colonels in the ABA. He is presently playing with the San Antonio Spurs.

Mail will reach Louie if addressed to: Louie Dampier, San Antonio Spurs, P. O. Box 530, San Antonio, TX 78292.

The Wildcats Came Away With a 94-87 Victory at Oxford

SCORECARD:

Actwood	4	Givens	30
David	20	Lee	6
Murray	8	Claytor	0
Wright	2	Fowler	10
Kyles	12	Haskins	0

The Wildcats began their series of games with the University of Mississippi in 1925 and have won 46 out of the 50 games the two have played.

The last time the Cats faced the Rebels of Ole Miss was February 28, 1976 in Oxford. Kentucky came away with a 94-87 victory.

With eleven minutes left to play the Wildcats led by only three points. Ole Miss put on a pressing defense that forced more than a turnover a minute by Kentucky and the Rebels came back.

Mike Phillips pulled the Cats ahead and with help from Larry Johnson the Kentucky team pulled ahead by nine points.

Kentucky was leading 92-83 when Harvey Murray tipped in a shot after Joe Kyles missed a free throw. Harris put in a long jumper to narrow the gap to 92-87 with a minute left.

Davis rebounded, but Murray missed. UK's Bob Fowler closed the scoring with a layup at seven seconds.

The Wildcats were 18 of 26 at the free throw line while the Rebels were seven of 15. UK held a 54-44 rebounding margin.

Jack Givens had 30 points and led the rebounding with 12.

Cawood REFLECTS

(PUBLISHER'S NOTE: The Popular "Voice of the Wildcats", CAWOOD LEDFORD, is in his 24th season as play-by-play announcer for the University of Kentucky. Cawood, sports director for WHAS radio and television since 1958, has been broadcasting since 1951. He is recognized as a sports authority throughout the nation.

LEDFORD

Down through the years—I guess you can go back to the beginning of basketball at the University, Kentucky so dominated the SEC that schools like Mississippi and LSU never defeated the Wildcats in some 25 or 30 years of play. In the past few years we have seen a sudden new interest in basketball in the SEC. Schools who once had an assistant football coach coaching the cagers now have full-time basketball coaches with full-time assistants. There is no shortage of good talent today. The deep south schools have done very well recruiting the black athlete. The schools are in predominately heavily populated black areas, the players are good and they are winning for them. The SEC has gone from two or three good teams, four in a great year, to today's eight or nine deep every year.

With that interest have come some beautiful new facilities for Southeastern Conference cagers. Almost every school in the conference (except Florida) now has a really fine basketball arena. Ole Miss has C. M. "Tad" Smith Coliseum in Oxford. It's not large by Kentucky standards (8,500), but it's all they need. Until they built it we always played in Memphis or down at Jackson in somebody else's arena because it was a money game.

The finest player I ever saw in a Mississippi uniform was Donnie Kessinger, who went on to make his mark in major league baseball with Chicago and now with the St. Louis Cardinals. Donnie, who came from Arkansas, was a tremendous guard, had great quickness and was a tremendous shooter. I think he was the best of all the ones I've seen because he was such a great scorer.

THE greatest player ever on the Rebel team was, without a doubt, Johnny Neumann (1971). Johnny signed a pro contract at the end of his sophomore year and joined Memphis in the ABA. He sure could put her up there. He was the kind of player the crowds love—the superstar. He was destined to be a great ballplayer.

He was ranked sixth in SEC rebounding, 18th in scoring and only missed double figures three times all year. His highest point total was 29 vs. Kentucky when he sacked 14 of 22 fielders. He rattled the Wildcats by amassing 56 points, 27 in Lexington and 29 in Oxford.
