

War World

Peace Rumors: At seven o'clock Sunday night... Peace negotiations which had originated during the week in Switzerland and Sweden...

There has been one great stumbling block in the way, however, and that was the increasing number of individual Germans to guarantee the surrender of any more than the troops and the areas immediately under their authority...

Berlin: All except the very center of Berlin has been overrun after hard fighting by Russian troops. The city is little more than a smoking mass of ruin...

The British-Canadian Front: British troops captured the town of Hamm and pushed closer to their attack on Hamburg and the narrow beach along the Baltic...

30,000 Germans in a pocket in Holland... The American Fifth Army and the British Eighth Army...

Italy: One dictator is no more. Benito Mussolini was captured by Italian partisans sometime Thursday...

The American Fifth Army and the British Eighth Army had fought such a costly battle up the Italian peninsula early in the week...

The Southern Front: Gen. Patton's Third Army advanced into Czechoslovakia and into Austria and toward Munich which was captured late Sunday night...

Kampus Kernels: Gold stars on the service flag of The Kern's news room now total 10, an investigation by staff members...

NSU skit... will be given at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the Union building.

Koffee Klub... will hear Dr. J. Huntley Dupre at 4 p.m. Thursday in the Music room of the Union building.

Chi Delta Phi... will meet at 3 p.m. Thursday in the Union building.

V-E Vespers... will be held at 6:30 p.m. of the day the announcement of victory is officially made...

Picnic... of Methodist Student Movement will be held from 5 to 7 p.m. today at Castlewold park.

Pictures... from the Kestackoff will be distributed between 12 and 2 p.m. Thursday at the office.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

VOLUME XXXV 2248 LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1945

University To Sponsor Annual Honors Program

Convo Slated For May 15

The University, in a united effort to recognize scholastic achievement, will sponsor a convocation at 10 a.m. Tuesday, May 15, in Memorial Hall as the first in a yearly series of scholastic programs...

Free Redemptorians

Phyllis Freed, Passaic, N. J. Arts and Sciences senior, has been chosen by a faculty committee to represent the students at the "Honors" program in a message to the assembly of students...

SGA Installs New Members

"We must learn from each other, trust each other, and adapt ourselves to each other; without these things we cannot have an enduring peace," said Dr. Robert J. McMullen, president of Centre college, at an assembly of University students, faculty, staff members and friends in a convocation hall Tuesday in Memorial Hall...

Program Committee

The committee in charge of arrangements for the program includes Dean Paul P. Boyd, chairman; Donald Edward Wines, Mrs. Sarah B. Holmes; Dean T. J. Jones, Dean L. J. Horlacher, Prof. John Horne, Prof. C. C. Ross, Prof. Roy YMcLennan, and Miss Maple Ross.

YM Officers, Cabinet For Coming Year Installed Tuesday

Newly-elected President Edward Beckwith, whose Arts and Sciences campus of Bellevue and his officers and cabinet were installed by retiring president of the Advisory Board, Dr. Robert J. McMullen, followed a dinner given by Mr. Bart Peak for the old and new members of the cabinet and Advisory Board, and the regular Y meeting. Dr. David C. Clark of the Church of the Good Shepherd spoke at the meeting on the subject of "The Y and the Church."

Kernel Service Flag Bears 10 Gold Stars Honoring Ex Staff

Gold stars on the service flag of The Kern's news room now total 10, an investigation by staff members of the University of Kentucky...

Services Held For Colonel Skain

Funeral services for Col. John Skain, 77, treasurer-emeritus of the University, and former mayor of Lexington who died Monday, were held Wednesday morning at St. Peter's Catholic church...

Students Discuss Congressmen's Tour

Interviewed agreed that it was "a good idea" and the American people would benefit from it. This answer was given to the question in discussion, "Yes, I think we will gain by sending our congressmen to Germany for this purpose. It will give us a clear view of just what our boys have gone through and it will give the congressmen some picture in the peace planning." The speaker added that they will be able to establish the truth of those things we have heard and will decide for us between propaganda and fact.

Drive Nets Two Carloads Of Clothing Materials Will Be Sent To War Victims

Student response to the National Clothing Collection drive, sponsored on the University campus during the week of April 23-28 by Mortar Board, senior women's honor, netted two carloads of old but usable clothing for war victims, Martha Ringo, drive chairman, announced yesterday. The campus drive received 1,500 pounds of clothing during the down-town drive, Miss Ringo said.

BSU To Hold V-E Vesper Services

Plans are being made by the Baptist Student Union for all-campus vesper services to be held at 6:30 on the evening of V-E Day in the amphitheater. If the announcement of victory is made after 12 o'clock, however, the program will be held the following evening.

YWCA Cabinet Is Installed

The University YWCA cabinet for 1945-46 was installed at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the music room of the Union building. After the ceremony, the new cabinet members were entertained by the YWCA advisory board at the home of Mrs. Sarah B. Holmes.

135 AST's Arrive Here

Men To Begin Training May 7. One hundred and thirty-five advanced trainees of the Army arrived at the University this week to begin the new term on May 7, according to Capt. T. E. Silvers of the Military Department.

Dr. Hill To Address Baptist Convocation At Banquet Tonight

Dr. John H. Hill of Nashville, well-known leader in the Southern Baptist convention, will be the guest speaker at the Baptist student convocation banquet to be held at 6:30 tonight at the Phoenix hotel.

Phi Delta Phi Reestablished Here

Phi Delta Phi, national honorary fraternity for lawyers, inactive on campus since the beginning of the war, has been reestablished. On April 29, they initiated the following members: Beverly Bernard, Howard Ewing, Jr., Frankfort; Joseph Clinton, Bowling Green; John Haden Bohannon, Greenville; Julian William Knippenberg, Lexington; Robert Doyle, London; John Coleman, Lexington; Richmond; Frank Selby Hurs, Lexington; Francis Cecil Henry, Lexington; Wiley O'Neil, Blackburn, Georgetown; and Halpin O'Reilly Hackett, Louisville.

Pardonez-moi

A story in last week's Kernel about the introduction of a new method of teaching French and Spanish at the University said incorrectly that Dr. Albert Server was acting head of the Languages department during the absence of Dr. Hobart Ryland. Prof. Blaine W. Schick has been acting head and will continue in that position until Dr. Ryland returns June 1.

Art Exhibit Open

The annual art exhibit of the local Brush and Pencil club, which was scheduled to close this past Sunday, will be held over through this week-end in the art gallery of the Biological Sciences building.

Link Faculty Rules Committee Considers New Amendment Passed By Student Body

Once again Broadway takes the heat as Guignol hits its stride in its "delightful interpretation of 'Kiss and Tell'." The play, by F. Hugh Herbert, will be held over until Saturday. There will be a Saturday matinee.

Broadway Takes Back Seat For Guignol's Kiss 'N Tell

The play, involving the feuding of families of life-long friendship on the moonstruck sections of the 600-year-old, brick-full of history fun.

Students Approved SGA Amendment On March 2

The amendment to the constitution of the Student Government association which was voted on and passed by the student body on March 2, is now being considered by the Rules committee of the University Faculty. It was announced by SGA President Bill Embury at the meeting of the assembly on Monday.

Adviser Not To Vote

After discussion the assembly decided that the SGA faculty adviser is not allowed to vote as a member of the Judiciary committee instead of five student members. The amendment, as passed by the student body, changed the original membership of the committee of two students and three faculty members to a membership of five students.

Joan Rehm

Joan Rehm, a junior at the University, seen in several previous Guignol productions, portrayed the role of Dexter Franklin with sparkling force in the new play "Kiss and Tell" if only for the privilege of watching Johnny's facial contortions.

Joan Renfro

W. B. Wrench, who has appeared in every play this season, and Eva Singleton, in her first role, appear in the new play "Kiss and Tell" as the members of the cast. Despite his double headache, Mr. Briggs comes through with flying colors in his responsibilities.

Joan Renfro

University students appearing in the play are Joan Renfro, Eva Singleton, Hugh Collett, Conrad Richardson, W. B. Wrench, and Alice Dean.

Donovan Returns

President H. L. Donovan attended a meeting of the National Association of State Universities in Chicago Friday. He was named a member of the executive committee of the association.

Students Approved SGA Amendment On March 2

The amendment to the constitution of the Student Government association which was voted on and passed by the student body on March 2, is now being considered by the Rules committee of the University Faculty. It was announced by SGA President Bill Embury at the meeting of the assembly on Monday.

Adviser Not To Vote

After discussion the assembly decided that the SGA faculty adviser is not allowed to vote as a member of the Judiciary committee instead of five student members. The amendment, as passed by the student body, changed the original membership of the committee of two students and three faculty members to a membership of five students.

Joan Rehm

Joan Rehm, a junior at the University, seen in several previous Guignol productions, portrayed the role of Dexter Franklin with sparkling force in the new play "Kiss and Tell" if only for the privilege of watching Johnny's facial contortions.

Joan Renfro

W. B. Wrench, who has appeared in every play this season, and Eva Singleton, in her first role, appear in the new play "Kiss and Tell" as the members of the cast. Despite his double headache, Mr. Briggs comes through with flying colors in his responsibilities.

Joan Renfro

University students appearing in the play are Joan Renfro, Eva Singleton, Hugh Collett, Conrad Richardson, W. B. Wrench, and Alice Dean.

Donovan Returns

President H. L. Donovan attended a meeting of the National Association of State Universities in Chicago Friday. He was named a member of the executive committee of the association.

So They Say

Questions: What is your reaction to the United Nations conference in San Francisco? Marjorie Smith, Education, senior: I believe the "big three" should give the smaller nations more "say so" in the decisions.

Phyllis Freed, A.S.S. senior: I think that if they don't get things straightened out this time, the best hope for a peaceful world will be gone.

Theodore E. Logan, A.S.S. senior: I think it is a good thing, but it doesn't seem to be as well organized as it should be.

Alice Freeman, A.S. junior: It seems to me that this is America's second chance to build an organization for lasting world peace, and we simply must not fail.

Phyllis Landrum, A.S.S. senior: I believe the conference can be a success in making a world peace if we are for the leaders.

Virginia Bernard, A.S.S. junior: It's up to the people of the world to support the conference in the same to build an organization for lasting peace—our future depends on its outcome.

Cecil Taylor, A.S.S. sophomore: Every nation is going to have to sacrifice something to come to an agreement.

I. R. Bartley, A.S.S. freshman: I don't think they should vote the peace questions now, but should set up a plan to settle important future problems.

So They Say

Questions: What is your reaction to the United Nations conference in San Francisco? Marjorie Smith, Education, senior: I believe the "big three" should give the smaller nations more "say so" in the decisions.

Phyllis Freed, A.S.S. senior: I think that if they don't get things straightened out this time, the best hope for a peaceful world will be gone.

Theodore E. Logan, A.S.S. senior: I think it is a good thing, but it doesn't seem to be as well organized as it should be.

Alice Freeman, A.S. junior: It seems to me that this is America's second chance to build an organization for lasting world peace, and we simply must not fail.

Phyllis Landrum, A.S.S. senior: I believe the conference can be a success in making a world peace if we are for the leaders.

Virginia Bernard, A.S.S. junior: It's up to the people of the world to support the conference in the same to build an organization for lasting peace—our future depends on its outcome.

Cecil Taylor, A.S.S. sophomore: Every nation is going to have to sacrifice something to come to an agreement.

I. R. Bartley, A.S.S. freshman: I don't think they should vote the peace questions now, but should set up a plan to settle important future problems.

Phyllis Landrum, A.S.S. senior: I believe the conference can be a success in making a world peace if we are for the leaders.

Virginia Bernard, A.S.S. junior: It's up to the people of the world to support the conference in the same to build an organization for lasting peace—our future depends on its outcome.

Cecil Taylor, A.S.S. sophomore: Every nation is going to have to sacrifice something to come to an agreement.

I. R. Bartley, A.S.S. freshman: I don't think they should vote the peace questions now, but should set up a plan to settle important future problems.

Phyllis Landrum, A.S.S. senior: I believe the conference can be a success in making a world peace if we are for the leaders.

Virginia Bernard, A.S.S. junior: It's up to the people of the world to support the conference in the same to build an organization for lasting peace—our future depends on its outcome.

Cecil Taylor, A.S.S. sophomore: Every nation is going to have to sacrifice something to come to an agreement.

I. R. Bartley, A.S.S. freshman: I don't think they should vote the peace questions now, but should set up a plan to settle important future problems.

Phyllis Landrum, A.S.S. senior: I believe the conference can be a success in making a world peace if we are for the leaders.

Virginia Bernard, A.S.S. junior: It's up to the people of the world to support the conference in the same to build an organization for lasting peace—our future depends on its outcome.

Cecil Taylor, A.S.S. sophomore: Every nation is going to have to sacrifice something to come to an agreement.

I. R. Bartley, A.S.S. freshman: I don't think they should vote the peace questions now, but should set up a plan to settle important future problems.

Phyllis Landrum, A.S.S. senior: I believe the conference can be a success in making a world peace if we are for the leaders.

Virginia Bernard, A.S.S. junior: It's up to the people of the world to support the conference in the same to build an organization for lasting peace—our future depends on its outcome.

Cecil Taylor, A.S.S. sophomore: Every nation is going to have to sacrifice something to come to an agreement.

I. R. Bartley, A.S.S. freshman: I don't think they should vote the peace questions now, but should set up a plan to settle important future problems.

Phyllis Landrum, A.S.S. senior: I believe the conference can be a success in making a world peace if we are for the leaders.

Virginia Bernard, A.S.S. junior: It's up to the people of the world to support the conference in the same to build an organization for lasting peace—our future depends on its outcome.

Cecil Taylor, A.S.S. sophomore: Every nation is going to have to sacrifice something to come to an agreement.

I. R. Bartley, A.S.S. freshman: I don't think they should vote the peace questions now, but should set up a plan to settle important future problems.

Phyllis Landrum, A.S.S. senior: I believe the conference can be a success in making a world peace if we are for the leaders.

Virginia Bernard, A.S.S. junior: It's up to the people of the world to support the conference in the same to build an organization for lasting peace—our future depends on its outcome.

Cecil Taylor, A.S.S. sophomore: Every nation is going to have to sacrifice something to come to an agreement.

I. R. Bartley, A.S.S. freshman: I don't think they should vote the peace questions now, but should set up a plan to settle important future problems.

Phyllis Landrum, A.S.S. senior: I believe the conference can be a success in making a world peace if we are for the leaders.

Virginia Bernard, A.S.S. junior: It's up to the people of the world to support the conference in the same to build an organization for lasting peace—our future depends on its outcome.

Cecil Taylor, A.S.S. sophomore: Every nation is going to have to sacrifice something to come to an agreement.

I. R. Bartley, A.S.S. freshman: I don't think they should vote the peace questions now, but should set up a plan to settle important future problems.

Phyllis Landrum, A.S.S. senior: I believe the conference can be a success in making a world peace if we are for the leaders.

Virginia Bernard, A.S.S. junior: It's up to the people of the world to support the conference in the same to build an organization for lasting peace—our future depends on its outcome.

THE KENTUCKY KERNEL

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

PUBLISHED WEEKLY DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR, EXCEPT HOLIDAYS OR EXAMINATION PERIODS

Editorial and Post Office at Lexington, Kentucky, 40502 (class matter under the Act of March 3, 1879)

JANET EDWARDS Managing Editor
DORIS SINGLETON News Editor
PEGGY WATKINS Business Manager
MARGIE DRAKE Circulation Manager
MARY JANE DORSEY Assistant Managing Editor
DICK LOWE Sports Editor
MARY LILLIE DAVIS Society Editor
MARY LOU PATTON, DORA LEE ROBERTSON, BETTY TEVIS Assistant News Editors
ADELE DENMAN, DORA LEE ROBERTSON, BILLIE FISCHER, SHIRLEY MEISTER, MARTHA JONES, MARY LOUIS MITTS Columnists

REPRESENTATIVE FOR NATIONAL ADVERTISING BY National Advertising Service, Inc.
420 MADISON AVE., NEW YORK, N. Y.
Circulation: 1,000 (ESTIMATED) FOR 1944

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: $1.00 One Year, $0.50 One Quarter - $1.00 One Year

The Kernel Editorial Page

Features • Gossip • Letters • Columns • Opinion

The Horizon

Marvin Zukerman

Twilight of the "Aryan"

The Third Reich is thrashing in her final death convulsions.

The cost of total war is heaving that once arrogant nation into the rubble of her own broken cities.

The blood-soaked bread which she cast upon the waters of Europe in 1939, is drifting back across the Rhine ten-fold in quantity.

Only twelve years ago Germany as a united nation set out on her career of Nazism.

With pagan-like bon-fire rites and throats cry of "Sig Heil," the Germans turned it all off we make Richter Germany's first president after our troops are withdrawn.

Peace. It's wonderful!

It seems to be able to breathe better since this elevation to the second page has put me up with the socialists.

But it seems that my typewriter has written sports for so long that it will write nothing else.

So without further ado we will begin the topic under discussion.

Every year after the close of the basketball season and before the start of the baseball season the sports writers gawk around the old stove and begin their sessions of tall tales and exciting experiences that they have heard about or made up during their travels.

These meetings became so prominent that they discovered a title and so the Sports League was born.

Some of them have been told over and over again and revived to suit the occasion.

The latest word on the Dempsey-Tunney fight to go the rounds concerns neither of the principals but a spy from the Dempsey camp who was sent to scout the opponent.

He returned with the news that the opponent was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

He was a former champion and a very tough fighter.

You'll Remember Spring '45

American school children have been brought up on historic dates.

To open a history book and read about the fundamental concepts of neutral rights in 1776 wasn't always an impressive ordeal especially when it meant that that date had to be memorized; the Monroe Doctrine in 1823 was just another attempt to maintain lasting independence; and no one will forget the tragic era of the 1860's.

These dates formed the foundations upon which future developments depended. America then was trying to do more than overcome a ruthless conqueror—she was struggling for existence.

Sure, Americans will remember those dates. They'll remember them though not because they were experiencing personally the throes of troubled times, but because through information that has been handed down through the generations they have learned to feel the suffering.

But now—Spring, 1945—there exists nothing but personal suffering. Within the last month dramatic history that will be recalled over and over again in those same old schoolbooks, has been taking form—only this time we're on the front row.

With the execution of Benito Mussolini by Italian patriots in the center of Milan, we saw fair proof of the beginning of the end of Fascist beliefs. The most important representative and the man who introduced this political society, had met his death in its very birthplace.

The three American divisions that swept into Munich, the birthplace of the Nazi party, another enveloping disease, paved the way to almost certain destruction of a second fanatical post.

The several thousand men and women from nearly fifty nations who are meeting together in San Francisco for study, discussion, and action on a world peace will present thoughtful challenges and will seek a better pattern of world affairs.

They have already recognized the reason for the failure of the League of Nations. Although the first week was filled with disagreements and outright conflicts in the demands of the different nations, success is inevitable. April 25, 1945 will not be forgotten.

Not until the successful storming of the Allied forces into Berlin, the one time proud industrial city and former center of international intrigue, be soon overlooked.

The memories of a smoldering rubble which was Stalingrad, the parched and barren fields over which the Nazi troops passed, the prison camps where Russians and Americans alike were tortured without pity, and the prison labor battalions who sweated to produce food for their conqueror—all these are fixed in the minds of those who knew and felt.

Spring, 1945.

the man who introduced this political society, had met his death in its very birthplace.

The three American divisions that swept into Munich, the birthplace of the Nazi party, another enveloping disease, paved the way to almost certain destruction of a second fanatical post.

The several thousand men and women from nearly fifty nations who are meeting together in San Francisco for study, discussion, and action on a world peace will present thoughtful challenges and will seek a better pattern of world affairs.

They have already recognized the reason for the failure of the League of Nations. Although the first week was filled with disagreements and outright conflicts in the demands of the different nations, success is inevitable. April 25, 1945 will not be forgotten.

Not until the successful storming of the Allied forces into Berlin, the one time proud industrial city and former center of international intrigue, be soon overlooked.

The memories of a smoldering rubble which was Stalingrad, the parched and barren fields over which the Nazi troops passed, the prison camps where Russians and Americans alike were tortured without pity, and the prison labor battalions who sweated to produce food for their conqueror—all these are fixed in the minds of those who knew and felt.

Spring, 1945.

the man who introduced this political society, had met his death in its very birthplace.

The three American divisions that swept into Munich, the birthplace of the Nazi party, another enveloping disease, paved the way to almost certain destruction of a second fanatical post.

The several thousand men and women from nearly fifty nations who are meeting together in San Francisco for study, discussion, and action on a world peace will present thoughtful challenges and will seek a better pattern of world affairs.

They have already recognized the reason for the failure of the League of Nations. Although the first week was filled with disagreements and outright conflicts in the demands of the different nations, success is inevitable. April 25, 1945 will not be forgotten.

Not until the successful storming of the Allied forces into Berlin, the one time proud industrial city and former center of international intrigue, be soon overlooked.

The memories of a smoldering rubble which was Stalingrad, the parched and barren fields over which the Nazi troops passed, the prison camps where Russians and Americans alike were tortured without pity, and the prison labor battalions who sweated to produce food for their conqueror—all these are fixed in the minds of those who knew and felt.

Spring, 1945.

the man who introduced this political society, had met his death in its very birthplace.

The three American divisions that swept into Munich, the birthplace of the Nazi party, another enveloping disease, paved the way to almost certain destruction of a second fanatical post.

The several thousand men and women from nearly fifty nations who are meeting together in San Francisco for study, discussion, and action on a world peace will present thoughtful challenges and will seek a better pattern of world affairs.

They have already recognized the reason for the failure of the League of Nations. Although the first week was filled with disagreements and outright conflicts in the demands of the different nations, success is inevitable. April 25, 1945 will not be forgotten.

Not until the successful storming of the Allied forces into Berlin, the one time proud industrial city and former center of international intrigue, be soon overlooked.

The memories of a smoldering rubble which was Stalingrad, the parched and barren fields over which the Nazi troops passed, the prison camps where Russians and Americans alike were tortured without pity, and the prison labor battalions who sweated to produce food for their conqueror—all these are fixed in the minds of those who knew and felt.

Spring, 1945.

the man who introduced this political society, had met his death in its very birthplace.

The three American divisions that swept into Munich, the birthplace of the Nazi party, another enveloping disease, paved the way to almost certain destruction of a second fanatical post.

The several thousand men and women from nearly fifty nations who are meeting together in San Francisco for study, discussion, and action on a world peace will present thoughtful challenges and will seek a better pattern of world affairs.

They have already recognized the reason for the failure of the League of Nations. Although the first week was filled with disagreements and outright conflicts in the demands of the different nations, success is inevitable. April 25, 1945 will not be forgotten.

Not until the successful storming of the Allied forces into Berlin, the one time proud industrial city and former center of international intrigue, be soon overlooked.

The memories of a smoldering rubble which was Stalingrad, the parched and barren fields over which the Nazi troops passed, the prison camps where Russians and Americans alike were tortured without pity, and the prison labor battalions who sweated to produce food for their conqueror—all these are fixed in the minds of those who knew and felt.

Spring, 1945.

the man who introduced this political society, had met his death in its very birthplace.

The three American divisions that swept into Munich, the birthplace of the Nazi party, another enveloping disease, paved the way to almost certain destruction of a second fanatical post.

The several thousand men and women from nearly fifty nations who are meeting together in San Francisco for study, discussion, and action on a world peace will present thoughtful challenges and will seek a better pattern of world affairs.

They have already recognized the reason for the failure of the League of Nations. Although the first week was filled with disagreements and outright conflicts in the demands of the different nations, success is inevitable. April 25, 1945 will not be forgotten.

Not until the successful storming of the Allied forces into Berlin, the one time proud industrial city and former center of international intrigue, be soon overlooked.

The memories of a smoldering rubble which was Stalingrad, the parched and barren fields over which the Nazi troops passed, the prison camps where Russians and Americans alike were tortured without pity, and the prison labor battalions who sweated to produce food for their conqueror—all these are fixed in the minds of those who knew and felt.

Spring, 1945.

the man who introduced this political society, had met his death in its very birthplace.

The three American divisions that swept into Munich, the birthplace of the Nazi party, another enveloping disease, paved the way to almost certain destruction of a second fanatical post.

The several thousand men and women from nearly fifty nations who are meeting together in San Francisco for study, discussion, and action on a world peace will present thoughtful challenges and will seek a better pattern of world affairs.

They have already recognized the reason for the failure of the League of Nations. Although the first week was filled with disagreements and outright conflicts in the demands of the different nations, success is inevitable. April 25, 1945 will not be forgotten.

Not until the successful storming of the Allied forces into Berlin, the one time proud industrial city and former center of international intrigue, be soon overlooked.

The memories of a smoldering rubble which was Stalingrad, the parched and barren fields over which the Nazi troops passed, the prison camps where Russians and Americans alike were tortured without pity, and the prison labor battalions who sweated to produce food for their conqueror—all these are fixed in the minds of those who knew and felt.

Spring, 1945.

the man who introduced this political society, had met his death in its very birthplace.

The three American divisions that swept into Munich, the birthplace of the Nazi party, another enveloping disease, paved the way to almost certain destruction of a second fanatical post.

The several thousand men and women from nearly fifty nations who are meeting together in San Francisco for study, discussion, and action on a world peace will present thoughtful challenges and will seek a better pattern of world affairs.

They have already recognized the reason for the failure of the League of Nations. Although the first week was filled with disagreements and outright conflicts in the demands of the different nations, success is inevitable. April 25, 1945 will not be forgotten.

Not until the successful storming of the Allied forces into Berlin, the one time proud industrial city and former center of international intrigue, be soon overlooked.

BOX CARS advertisement by Adele Denman. Includes text: 'A number of persons who didn't attend the dance last week enjoyed Lee Brown's music as much as we enjoyed the view at the Tavern, included in the list of non-dancers was Lucy "Fox Leg" Hawkins.'

ME ROOMMATE advertisement. Includes text: 'Who wears me clothes, And wipes me nose, Makes me bed, And comb me head—Me roommate. Who entertains me mens, And forgives me sins, Who does me typing, With never griping—Me roommate.'

UK-Way Back When advertisement by Mary Louis Mitts. Includes text: 'The University will erect two new buildings on the campus in the near future. If the plans approved by the board of trustees are successfully carried out, the buildings which are to be erected will be a new educational building and a memorial building.'

ROBERT'S JEWELERS advertisement. Includes text: 'IT'S ROBERTS FOR NATIONALLY ADVERTISED JEWELRY. The Store With The All Glass Door. 105 East Main Street Lexington, Ky. Phone 85.'

Sigma News! Informs Brothers The World Over. Includes text: 'I thought perhaps you'd like to know that although the Sigma Nu house on Euclid has been left by all of its former occupants, the "Spirit of Gamma Iota" lives on in many ways.'

COVERING ALL FRONTS! advertisement for The Courier-Journal. Includes text: 'He Highlights the News of The Courier-Journal. JAMES SOULE POPE, Managing Editor of THE COURIER-JOURNAL, was born at Zebulon, Pike County, Georgia...'

Combat wire moving up in a hurry! advertisement. Includes text: 'Every unit ties in by telephone to report on contact between companies, and to discuss the next move. That means combat telephone wires must be laid down with every forward push. And communications crews must work continuously repairing the breaks in lines torn by tanks and amphibians and blasted by artillery and mortars.'

Advertisement for Bell Telephone System. Includes text: 'Our Armed Forces still have urgent need for huge quantities of communications equipment of all kinds. That's why there is a wait for home telephone service. BELL TELEPHONE SYSTEM. "Service to the Nation in Peace and War"'

THE SALT SHAKER advertisement. Includes text: 'By Billie Fischer. Guest Columnist-Sports Editor Dick Lowe. The thrill that comes once in a lifetime was mine the other day when Billie Fischer, who has written The Salt Shaker since fall, gave me the chance to escape from the back page to the prominent position in the right hand corner of page two.'

Advertisement for The Courier-Journal. Includes text: 'COVERING ALL FRONTS! He Highlights the News of The Courier-Journal. JAMES SOULE POPE, Managing Editor of THE COURIER-JOURNAL, was born at Zebulon, Pike County, Georgia...'

Advertisement for The Courier-Journal. Includes text: 'COVERING ALL FRONTS! He Highlights the News of The Courier-Journal. JAMES SOULE POPE, Managing Editor of THE COURIER-JOURNAL, was born at Zebulon, Pike County, Georgia...'

Advertisement for The Courier-Journal. Includes text: 'COVERING ALL FRONTS! He Highlights the News of The Courier-Journal. JAMES SOULE POPE, Managing Editor of THE COURIER-JOURNAL, was born at Zebulon, Pike County, Georgia...'

Advertisement for The Courier-Journal. Includes text: 'COVERING ALL FRONTS! He Highlights the News of The Courier-Journal. JAMES SOULE POPE, Managing Editor of THE COURIER-JOURNAL, was born at Zebulon, Pike County, Georgia...'

Advertisement for The Courier-Journal. Includes text: 'COVERING ALL FRONTS! He Highlights the News of The Courier-Journal. JAMES SOULE POPE, Managing Editor of THE COURIER-JOURNAL, was born at Zebulon, Pike County, Georgia...'

Friday, May 4, 1945

THE KENTUCKY KERNER

Men's Halls Will Entertain Women

"The Prisoner of Zenda" with Ronald Coleman, is to be the feature attraction of the picture show party which the residents of the men's halls are giving this evening in the quadrangle of their dorms. All residents of the women's halls are invited to attend the party which will begin at 8 p.m.

Besides the main feature there will be two comedies, door prizes, and refreshments.

8544 CALLS for Gibb secretaries last year. Outstanding ability to attract... Katharine Gibbs

ALUMNI NEWS

THEN and NOW

PERSONALITIES

Schooler—Ex. Set. Leonard P. Schooler, of Ft. Mitchell, gunnery instructor in B-17's at Kinman Army Air Field, Ariz., visited the campus this week en route to Greensboro, N. C. Set. Schooler left the University in December '43.

Drummy—Ex. First. Lieut. John L. Drummy of Lexington, is now taking training at Roswell Army Air Field, New Mexico. Lieutenant Drummy began his air forces training with the Royal Canadian Air Force. In September, 1942, he joined the United States air forces. Since then he has been stationed at Pease, Tex., Sacramento, to Calif., and Albuquerque, N. M. Lieut. Drummy left school in 1942.

Ledford—Ex. William C. Ledford of Paint Lick received the wings of a navigator and his commission as a second lieutenant in graduation exercises at Selman Field, La. He was a former University student and entered the armed services in May 1943. He has been stationed at Camp Wolters, Tex., and Maxwell Field, Ala., since.

Spears—1944. Miss Sally Spears of Versailles recently returned home from a vacation in New York. Miss Spears received a B.S. degree in Commerce in December 1944.

Leedy—Ex. Second Lieut. Donald G. Leedy of Versailles has been awarded the Air Medal for meritorious achievement in aerial flight during sustained operational activity against the enemy, according to an announcement from the 15th AAF headquarters. Lieut. Leedy, a bombardier aboard one of the heavy bombers, has participated in numerous bombings of strategic German-held targets in Europe with his Liberator bombardment group. He entered the service in February 1942, and received his wings at Kirkland Field, N. M., in July 1944. Before entering the service he was student of the University.

Blair—Ex. First Lieut. William Blair of Akron, Ohio recently arrived home on a 10-day leave. Capt. Alverson has been stationed at McClellan Field, Calif., and will return there.

Alverson—1942. Capt. Safford "Sandy" Alverson of Paris recently arrived home on a 10-day leave. Capt. Alverson has been stationed at McClellan Field, Calif., and will return there.

Atchison—1942. Pfc. John G. Atchison of Lexington is spending a 28-day furlough with his parents after serving six months in the European theater. After his furlough he will return to the General Hospital at Camp Carson, Colo.

Mahan—1941. First Lieut. William Mahan, pilot in the U. S. Air Forces, is visiting his wife and son in Lexington after three months of "flying the hump" between India and China. Lieut. Mahan has received the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with Oak Leaf Clusters, and presidential citation, will report to St. Joseph, Missouri May 2 as an instructor.

McKinley—1942. First Lieut. Tommy McKinley of Lexington participated in the capture of April 10 of Franz von Papen, former chancellor of the German republic. The capture was made in the Ruhr sector of Germany. Lieut. McKinley, who is in the Airborne Infantry, went overseas in the fall of 1943 having served since then in Italy, the invasion of southern France, and in the Battle of the Bulge.

Reynolds—1939. First Lieut. Curtis Reynolds was among the graduates of the Personnel Affairs course at the School for Personnel Services, Lexington, Va., in February. Graduates of this course will aid in giving advice and assistance to service men and women and their dependents throughout the Army.

Tri Deltas Name Street President

Frances Woodruff Street, Cadiz, is the new president of Delta Delta. Also assuming office this quarter are Elizabeth Street, Henderson, chapter vice-president; Maria Legg, Henderson, N. C., house president; Mairiam Emily James, Middleton, treasurers; Cornelia Dozier, Madisonville, recording secretary; Frances Wickfield, Henderson, corresponding secretary; Mary Fox Clarke, Mayville, Isabel Tepas, Portsmouth, Ohio, chaplain; Carolyn Gibson, Lexington, rush chairman; Marybelle Calvert, Mayville, co-rush chairman; Anne Holladay, New Castle, social chairman; Leslie Bruce, Stearns, librarian; Joann Klockner, Lexington, historians; Marianne Cross, Palo Alto, Calif., publicity chairman; Margaret Corckle, Glasgow, chairman of party arrangements.

INITIATED

By Delta Rho chapter of Delta Delta Delta, Reno Anderson, Earl, Ariz.; Jane H. Clark, Prestonburg; Mary Fox Clarke, Mayville; Marianne Cross, Palo Alto, Calif.; Frances Draffin, Harrodsburg; Rosemary Dummit, Lexington; Barbara Pfeiffer, Cadiz; Ann Gray, Jeffersonville, Ind.; Ruby Jean Hardin, Carrollton; Helen Hardy and Ann Harrison, Louisville; Maria Legg, Henderson, N. C.; Marjorie Mitchell, Glasgow; Mary Nichols, Frankfort; Beth Shipman, Shelbyville; Ann Shouse, Lexington; Isabel Tepas, Portsmouth, Ohio; Alicia Tuxley, Mt. Hope, W. Va.; Mary Lou Witherspoon, Lawrenceburg; Betty Yager, Louisville; and Margaret Yeager, Pikeville.

Initiated to Alpha Chi chapter of Theta Alpha, Evesha Davis, Lexington; Olive Lee Hays, Bloomfield; Dorothy Gung, Frankfort; Virginia Elliott, Harrodsburg; Betty Davis, Danville; Betty Robinson, Lexington.

By Kentucky Epsilon of Phi Delta Theta, Leslie Avis, Logan, W. Va.; Robert Guffey, Louisville, and John Owens, Jr., Lexington.

By Beta Gamma Sigma: Margaret Erskine Caldwell, Danville; M. A. B. McLean of Lafayette, Ind. has been announced by her father, Theodore G. Bell of Bedford, Ind.

Phi Beta Tau. The bride-elect attended the University.

Phi Beta Tau. The bride-elect attended the University.

Phi Beta Tau. The bride-elect attended the University.

Phi Beta Tau. The bride-elect attended the University.

Phi Beta Tau. The bride-elect attended the University.

Phi Beta Tau. The bride-elect attended the University.

Phi Beta Tau. The bride-elect attended the University.

There's A Dixie Dealer

ENJOY Dixie ICE CREAM CREAM OF THE BILL GRASS

Near You DIXIE ICE CREAM CO. INCORPORATED 344-348 E. Main

COLONEL Of The Week

MARIE LOUISE MCCOWN This week's Colonel of the Week is Marie Louise McCown, senior from Versailles.

Marie Louise is past president of Chi Omega and member of Pan-Hellenic. She is a member of the Women's Administrative Council, Glee club, Phi Beta, and Spanish club. She is a former member of K-Delta.

Next Week's Committee: SEE FENMORE, Chairman Chi Omega; DOROTHY SYMPSON, Kappa Kappa Gamma; DORIS SINGLETON, Independent; BETTY TEVIS, Independent

SERVING HOURS: Lunch 11:45 to 1:30 Dinner 5:15-7:30 Sunday Dinner 11:45-2:00

Cedar Village Restaurant

RENT A CAR! --NEW-- Fords and Plymouths Phone 648 FORD U-DRIVE-IT 139 E. Short Street

SAVE ON Your LAUNDRY - DRY CLEANING 15% Discount Drive In Service

De Boor Laundry Cleaning Opposite Stadium

Weddings and Engagements

TAYLOR-JUBANOVSKY

The engagement of Mary E. Taylor to Louis John Jubanovsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jubanovsky of Vaux Hall, N. J., has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyon Switzer of Georgetown.

SYMPSON-KRAMER

The engagement of Mary Louise Sympton to Eric Charles G. Kramer, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Kramer of Ashland has been announced by her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Charles B. Shutt of Lexington.

MILES-JONES

The engagement of Nancy Randed Miles to Capt. Everett R. Jones, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jones of Leitchfield has been announced by her father, Theodore G. Bell of Bedford, Ind.

RUBY-JOHNSON

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Ruby of Louisville announce the marriage of their daughter, Betty Jean, to Capt. Ben H. Johnson of Lexington.

BELL-McLEAN

The engagement of Dorothy Bell to G. A. McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. McLean of Lafayette, Ind., has been announced by her father, Theodore G. Bell of Bedford, Ind.

Phi Beta Tau Founders Program

Four members of Phi Beta, honorary drama, dance and music fraternity, will present a program of the organization's annual Founder's Day at 4:30 p.m. Saturday in the Carnegie room of the Union building.

Phi Kappa Alpha Elects Officers

Omega chapter of Phi Kappa Alpha (fraternity) at the University has elected the following new officers: Donald Hall, president, Stamping Ground; Bob Carter, vice-president, Charleston, W. Va.; Bernard R. Able, secretary and treasurer, Louisville; Joseph D. Botto, pledge master, Munfordville. The officers will serve for the spring and summer quarters.

SGA Installs

(Continued from Page One) campus, you are likely to be good citizens of the state and of the nation.

RECORDS

Bonney Miller 232 EAST MAIN ST. Phone 3100 Lexington, Kentucky

Kappa Delta Pi Entertains Pledges

Kappa Delta Pi, national educational honorary, entertained with a reception Tuesday night from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the Union building in honor of the new pledges of the society.

In the receiving line were Miss Thelma Moncal, president; Miss Ethel Smith, vice-president; Mrs. Queenie Grable, secretary; W. S. Taylor, treasurer; and Mrs. May K. Duncan, counselor.

Those initiated were: Helen Baggett, Martha Clay, Janet Heisel, Rita Lykins, Wilma McMillen, Armande Miller, Virginia Ray, Mildred Sparks, Beverly Steffe and Bonnie Jane Wootton.

Jewell Hall Gives Party

Jewell hall, senior women's dormitory, entertained April 25 with a party, a parody on the all-women "Kentucky Belles" program, honoring its own "Kentucky Sisters."

Those assisting were Bessie Burris, Jean Galloway, Frances Mooman, Jane Oldham, and Louise Teator.

Beta Gamma Sigma To Initiate Pledges

Beta Gamma Sigma, national scholastic society in the commerce college, will initiate four new members today at the home of Dean Edward Weist.

The new pledges are Margaret Erskine Caldwell, Danville; Marie Cottingham, Henderson; Mary Ann Stannard, Huntington, W. Va.; and Jane Heisel, Altoona, Pa.

Garden Club Meets

The Garden club of the University met Tuesday afternoon at the Lexington cemetery. Members of the club toured the cemetery.

Emily Hunt Keeps in Step With Youth in Sandals

Miss Emily Hunt, Commerce Junior of whitefield, is a member of S.G.A., the Kentuckian Staff, Y.W.C.A., and the Secretarial Club. She is secretary of the Women's Administrative Council. She is also former president of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

Just as Emily is outstanding on the campus, so will these sandals be outstanding with you.

Harpy's Bazaar

By Jane Hunt Clark

The time has come to get a suntan—possibly without having pneumonia as a chaser. The problem, however, remains—how to tan without burning, or how to get done on both sides without having raw meat in the middle.

Brunettes are blessed in this case by having the type skin that takes tanning, while blondes must battle freckles and blisters and the general appearance of "one meat ball."

If, on the other hand, you prefer to mix your own and hope for the best, your safest bet is olive oil. One of the better recipes is: one cup vinegar and one cup olive oil, to which has been added one teaspoonful of iodine. If you don't want to use iodine, black tea can be substituted with the same results.

Care should always be taken to protect eyes, lips, and hair from the strong rays. Puffs of cotton placed over the eyes will afford adequate protection and will eliminate the untanned spots left by dark glasses. Lips will be spared dryness and blisters by the application of a thick coat of lipstick. Hair should be tied up in a scarf after the first fifteen minutes of sunning. After that length of time, the sun begins to dry out the natural.

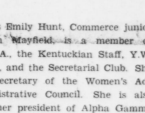

Correct Commencement in 1960

This member of a Senior Class of that year is fashion-perfect for the occasion. Top-hats were sine-qua-non, and voluminous necklines muffled the spoolless linen. Co-education was becoming fashionable, too.

That year, 1860, civil war was looming on the country's horizon. College campuses blazed with patriotism. Railway Express was ready, at the first summons, to put its services at the nation's command. Today, America is fighting a world-wide war. So, to help all concerned, please do three simple things with your 1945 home packages and baggage: Pack them securely—address clearly and adequately—avoid abbreviating state names.

BUY MORE WAR BONDS NATION-WIDE RAIL-AIR SERVICE

Sensationally Popular "BANDED" SANDAL

Glittering bands of white tulle give a most comfortable fit... WEAR TESTED PLASTIC SOLES

3.95

The Mitchell, Baker, Smith Co.

Former Net Star Killed in Action

Capt. Kenneth Harnes England, 24, former University athlete, was killed in action in Italy April 18, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. England of Campbellsville, have been informed.

England played varsity basketball from 1940-42 as a regular guard, and was one of the outstanding players of recent years. He had been in the service since his graduation from the University in May, 1942.

He was the third member of the 1941-42 Southeastern Conference championship team to be killed in action.

Besides his parents, he is survived by one brother.

Try Kernel Classified

MICHLER FLORIST CUT FLOWERS AND CORSAGES 417 E. Maxwell Phone 1419

Taxicabs! Phone 8200 LEXINGTON YELLOW CAB CO. Incorporated

"It's Time" To Change From Winter To Summer Oil and Grease TAYLOR TIRE COMPANY Phone 2030 Vine at Southeastern

PRECIOUS IS THE WORD FOR THEM as expressed by BETTIE TUTTLE (Come See For Yourself) Lamb's Wool Wire-Haired TERRIERS $5.00 An Adorable Armful To Cuddle Or Come Home To SMITH-WATKINS Incorporated HARDWARE 236 E. Main SPORTING GOODS Phone 23

GIRLS! Let's Work At SYLVANIA Where Everything Goes To War VICTORY SHIFT Hours 4-7:30 p. m. A representative is at the U. S. Employment Office to Interview You. SYLVANIA ELECTRIC PRODUCTS Inc. All Applicants Must Be Cleared Through War Man Power Commission

May 15 Deadline For Room Applications

Any woman student not now living in a University residence hall who intends to live in the dormitory during the summer term should apply to Miss Irma A. Poole, director of residences, in Jewell hall, before May 15.

War World

(Continued from Page One) by Gen. Patton's men. Apparently the movement of the Third and Seventh U. S. Armies and the Russians up the Danube through Austria has been so rapid that the Germans were unable to retreat into the mountains of Bavaria for a last desperate guerrilla campaign. Reports from Vienna tell of an Austrian revolt and the setting up of an anti-Nazi government under Russian sponsorship.

The Pacific Sectors: The news from Europe has overshadowed the action in Okinawa, the Philippines and Burma. In the latter area British troops are approaching Rangoon. Baguio, the summer capital of Luzon, was taken Saturday. MacArthur's men on Mindanao are closing in on the port of Davao. On Okinawa slow progress has been made against the Japanese in their caves in the southern part of the island. The Japanese mainland has been steadily raided again and again, all week.

The Lowe-Down

Although yours truly once held the position of sports writer for a local newspaper, played forward on a Girl Scout basketball team, placed fourth in a 50-yard dash, caught a fish eight and three-quarter inches long, shot a snake through the head at twenty yards, and was thrown from a horse named Cherry Pie, we know nothing, absolutely nothing, about sports. And now that we have shown ourself to be on the same footing as Dick Lowe, we will write about sports.

BOWLING

Aside from a few unpleasant experiences with a worn-out cannon ball, a very narrow dance floor, and a lot of wooden bottles, our knowledge of bowling is scanty. We went to the Bowling Lanes the other night—to treat a friend to a coke. You can imagine our embarrassment upon discovering that we had forgotten to bring along some money. It grew more embarrassing when we discovered that our friend was also without funds. We decided to kill the cokes first, and then tell the owner that we had no intentions of paying. He was really very decent about the whole thing. He just said, "That's all right, honey, you can just start setting the pins in alley ten."

FOOT

The women's pool tournament being sponsored by the Student Union board reminds us of the farmer, from way back in the country, who came into town one day with his pockets bulging with the profits of the sale of his crops. Assuming his most worldly manner, he entered a saloon and gaming house which had a sign BILLIARDS over the entrance.

Sauntering up to the bar with a false air of assurance, the farmer slapped a coin on the counter and said, "Gimme a glass of them three billiards."

The bartender, sizing him up immediately, made no comment, but went into the filthy old kitchen and returned with a glass of foamy, dark, undiluted dishwater, which he shoved across the counter to his customer. The farmer drank it in one gulp. Banging the glass down on the counter, he wiped his mouth and said, "Waal, efen I warn't a no old hardened billiards drinker, I'd 'a said that there was dishwater!"

HOUSES

Knowing nothing about horses, our roommate was taken for quite a ride the other night. In the paddock, as you all know, are two little doxies—one labeled COLTS, and the other labeled FILLIES. Aware of her ignorance, her escort playfully directed her to the COLTS door. She never would have known the difference if she hadn't seen the horrified looks on a few faces—as she came out.

PING PONG

The last ping pong match we saw was very funny. That is, the ping pong game wasn't funny, but the show was. What we're trying to say is that Carliss Archer and Pvt. Earhart play ping pong in Kiss and Tell, and why don't you see the show?

'I Hear You Knockin'

By Lesley Stalker Deep into the darkness peering— Long they stood there, wondering— feasting, Doubting, dreaming dreams no mortals Ever dared to dream before But the silence was unbroken And the stillness gave no token And the stillness gave no token And the stillness gave no token "Is this some South Lime?" This he whispered, and an echo, Murmured back these words: Mercy this, and nothing more. Much they marvelled, this sughly, Lieutenant to hear discourse so plainly Though his asking little meaning Little relevancy bore. But we cannot help agreeing That no living human being Nor sorcery was blessed with seeing A lieutenant at their bedroom door. Let this happen nevermore. Then fierce words they spoke of parting. "Drunkard, fiend!" they shrieked upstarting. "Get thee back into the temple, And the Night's Phantasma Shore, Leave no fears as a token, Of those words thy soul has spoken, Leave this room on second floor, Go away from the ADP House, And to some other house implore, And return here nevermore. Waves training at Smith College received circulars from a tailoring firm offering to "beautify American womanhood with anchors, flags, battleships, or antiaircraft guns." —The Collegiate World.

BLUEGRASS AIRLINES FLIGHTS DAILY To: (except Sundays) ASHLAND LOUISVILLE BOWLING GREEN OWENSBORO MADISONVILLE PADUCAH For Information or Reservations PHONE 141 - LAFAYETTE HOTEL

Len Miller Retires Head

Ronald (Len) Miller, assistant football coach at the University in 1932-33, and lately head of the Physical Education department at Morehead State Teachers college, died Tuesday in a Louisville hospital after an illness of several months. He gained recognition at the University in his school days as one of the best quarterbacks in the south, and former Head Football Coach Harry Gamage praised him as the smartest player he ever coached. He played on the 1927 Wildcat eleven, but was unable to play much after that year because of a knee injury. After being graduated in 1929 he was added to the coaching staff, remaining at the University for that season. He returned as assistant coach in 1932-33.

Miller went to Morehead as head of the athletic department in 1933 and had remained in that position since. He was also acting coach of the football team in the absence of Ellis Johnson, another former UK athlete now in the Naval Reserve.

Coach Miller, a native of Lexington, was a graduate of the old Lexington high school. He was 38. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Dale Smith Miller, a son, Michael, and his father, Albert Miller of Lexington.

Funeral services were held at Morehead college at 2 p. m. yesterday.

Broaday Takes

(Continued from Page One) Pringle. The staff is as follows: Wally Briggs, producing director; Miriam Richmond, assistant director; Lyle Watson, prompter; Jean Paxton, Call girl; Mrs. Phil Niles, business manager; Mrs. Wallace Briggs, box office manager; Robert Whitley, house manager; Henry Poushce, stage manager; William O'Bannon, electrician; Laura Lee Lyons, property mistress; Phyllis Valleau, sound effects.

Faculty Rules

(Continued from Page One) The motion, seconded by John Hopkins, passed unanimously. Read Letter.

President Embry read a letter to the assembly from the committee planning the Farewell to Seniors Day program. The committee asked the legislature to sponsor a senior and $100 was voted to the committee to meet the expenses of the dance.

John Hopkins made a motion that a list of SGA's accomplishments be compiled at the end of each year and that a copy be sent to President H. L. Donovan and also published in The Kernel. This motion was seconded by Charles Harris and passed by the members.

Miss Azile Wofford, assistant professor of library science, has been appointed by President Donovan as SGA faculty adviser to replace Dr. Margaret Ratliff.

Irate Prof at Auburn: "You're late! You should have been here at eight o'clock." Student: "Why? What happened?"

Seniors Invitations 15c RINGS $20 and $25 Cap and Gown $3.00 ($3.00 Refunded Upon Return of Cap and Gown) CAMPUS BOOK STORE

Koffee Klub To Hear Dr. J. Huntley Dupre

Dr. J. Huntley Dupre, former member of the University History department and present director of the World Student Service Fund in New York, will speak to the Koffee Klub at 4 p. m. Tuesday in the Music room of the Union building.

Dr. Dupre left the campus in the fall to assume his duties with the WSSF, which is an international, interdenominational organization for the advancement of students.

CLASSIFIED ADS

A CAREER IN MARKET RESEARCH Do you like "marketing"? We would like three single girls, 20 to 28 and with some college training to make consumer surveys in key cities throughout the United States, obtaining information from housewives regarding our products. Expenses such as hotel bills, meals, laundry, and transportation will be paid. No selling involved; the positions are permanent and offer good opportunity for advancement. Write to "PROCTOR & GAMBLE Co., P. O. Box 506, Dept. P. M. Gladstone, Ohio." Give your qualifications and enclosing an imperative stamped which indicates you are serious.

TYNOC—Iron pipes, lines, manholes, Rebecca Edwards, 423 Herndon Bldg., Lexington. Phone 478 and 223-X.

FOR SALE—Very profitable leader retail. Owner retiring service. Phone 818.

LOST—Furber #1 pencil near school. Finder please return to Kerl's business office. Reward.

LOST—Blue rim glasses in leather case. Betty Bradford. Call 2362.

LOST—Old Omega plus between Ohio house and B. B. building. Mary Kaasebrook on back. Reward. Call 141.

Radio Schedule

The University radio studio announces the following programs: Saturday, May 5: 12:30 to 1 p. m. "Your Home and Mine" by Orville Johnson, assistant in information, Agricultural Extension division. WHAS. 1:30 to 1:45 p. m. "Modern Stories." WHAS. 1:45 to 2 p. m. "Know Your Kentucky Government" by Charles K. O'Connell, secretary state. WHAS. Sunday, May 6: 12 to 12:30 p. m. "UK Round Table." Ally. WHAS. Monday, May 7: 12:30 to 1:15 p. m. "Engineering on the Farm" by John L. McKelrick, engineering specialist. WHAS. 7 to 7:15 p. m. "Your Land and My Land." WBKY (FM). 7:15 to 7:30 p. m. "Student Musicale." WBKY (FM). 7:30 to 7:45 p. m. "Social Work Forum." WBKY (FM). 7:45 to 8 p. m. "Hasten the Day." WBKY (FM). 10:15 to 10:30 p. m. "Campus Kernele." WLAP.

Tuesday, May 8: 12:30 to 1:15 p. m. "Work Simplification" by George B. Byers, Farm Management department. WHAS. Wednesday, May 9: 12:30 to 1:15 p. m. "Doings of Kentucky Farm Folk" by C. A. Lewis, editor, Agricultural Extension division. WHAS. 7 to 7:15 p. m. "Let's Talk About Books." WBKY (FM). 7:15 to 7:30 p. m. "From the Carnegie Room." WBKY (FM). 7:30 to 7:45. "News, Bluegrass Farming." WBKY (FM). 7:45 to 8 p. m. "Peake Sheehan." WBKY (FM). Thursday, May 10: 12:30 to 1:15 p. m. "The Farm Labor Situation" by Bruce Poundstone, field agent in farm management. WHAS. Friday, May 11: 12:30 to 1:15 p. m. "What Farm Folk Are Asking" by L. C. Brewer, College of Agriculture. WHAS. Prayer of an advertising man's child: "Give us this day our daily golden bread, so-baked, vitamin-enriched crust." —The Colgate

MEADORS PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDIO HORSE—COMMERCIAL—PORTRAIT—COPIES KENTUCKIAN HOTEL BUILDING EAST HIGH AND VIADUCT PHONE 4645 LEXINGTON 4, KY.

Cottons Capture a Gay Mood Cottons step into the spring picture in a gala mood. Brief sleeves . . . lovely, bright prints . . . charming styles . . . these cotton dresses are destined for a busy future as stars of your play-time, date-time wardrobe. Buy a War Bond Today for That Man in Uniform