Gentlemen:—

Your man, Mr. Overton, requested us this A.M. to telephone you stating he was again broke and desired money to get home on. As he was the same party we advanced money to at your request over phone, and as he stated that he was going direct home, we advanced him $3.00. Thought best to do this thereby saving the telephone charges, and trust this will be satisfactory to you.

Suppose he is with you by this time.

Yours respectfully,

Dic. G. H. P.
