Expanding Bureaucracy

A Study of an Expensive
Violation of Campaign
Pledges, Menacing to the Rights and Liberties of Citizens

"We are not getting an adequate return for the money we are spending in Washington, or, to put it another way round, we are spending altogether too much money for government services which are neither practical nor necessary. In addition to this we are attempting too many functions and we need a simplification of what the Federal Government is giving to the people."

—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Sioux City, Iowa.
September 29, 1932.
