Dr. Fred W. Rankin,
Lexington, Kentucky.

My dear Fred:

I congratulate you on being elected President of the American Medical Association. I assure you that no living person rejoices with you any more than I do. It is an outstanding honor and one which, in my judgment, you most certainly merit.

I was talking to Watt today about this honor coming to you, and both of us agreed that we fully expected you to be President of the American Medical Association sometime, but our fondest hopes did not picture your attaining this high honor in your youthful days. It is really a great joy for me to know that this great honor has come to you.

My health continues to be normal. I am able to do as much work as I ever did, though I am inclined to be a little lazy. I think of you every day, and always with the thought that you saved my life.

With every good wish, I am

Gratefully and sincerely yours,

R. S. Stewart.
