PRESIDENT-ELECT

HAROLD M. CAMP, M. D., MONMOUTH
SECRETARY-TREASURER

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT ELECT

ROCKFORD, ILLINOIS

June 6, 1941

Dr. Fred Rankin
Lexington, Kentucky

My dear Fred:

Kindly accept my congratulations on your election to the highest office obtainable in the medical profession. Possibly my early abdominal massage has increased your intestinal fortitude, for I am sure you will need it during the next two years, and I want to assure you of my fullest cooperation. I will be only too glad to do anything and everything that I can to assure the best possible medical service to all the people.

Sincerely your friend,

M. D.
