Dear Dr. Rankin:

I was not greatly surprised but very much pleased to learn of the action of the House of Delegates in making you President-Elect. Unfortunately I had to leave Cleveland Wednesday afternoon so did not hear the result until a few days later and since then I have been very busy with Commencement, etc. I may be a little late therefore but wish to extend my hearty congratulations and feel that this is a well-merited honor.

With very best wishes,

Cordially yours,

J. H. J. Upham
