

Monday - Oct. 12th

Dear Mr. Fred,

This is from one of your most ardent admirers and I know you would enjoy the story behind it! Maye and I were on the train from New York to Washington last Saturday and as we were passing through the car, on our way to lunch, I noticed a big ten per-center reading the New York Times - and there you were, on full display! He overheard