Monday Noon

Dear Fred:

I want to congratulate you on your recent honor. Much to my surprise part of your speech was written up in our Raleigh paper last Friday. Several of the doctors in this building have spoken to me about it. They all speak very highly of you.

Margaret wrote me that you had not been so well recently, and were undecided as to whether you would be able to go to Chicago or not. I'm glad you were able to go, and we are all very proud of you.

We were in Mooreville about six weeks ago and mama looked fine, and had had a very good summer. I was surprised that she had to go back to the hospital so soon.

Friday we had a letter from Margaret. She was certainly down
