

I seem to be even more careless than ever about writing - since I really resigned I've fallen into a state of utter relaxation -

Yes I did resign in spite of that fact that you thought I would like it & it was a case of broken health at the end of the year or that. I have an excellent letter of recommendation from the superintendent. I'm rather thinking about going into the middle west if I can't get into the school here - Want to come along?

What I'll do from now on I don't know. I've registered with the Empire Agency hoping to get something for second term - they notified me of one at Pander N. Y. but it was as big as Waverly and I would have to teach English II, Business English, Commercial Geography and
